Jets Busy On Anniversary Of Battle In Tonkin Gulf

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Secretary of State Dean Rusk today left open the possibility that U.S. troops might enter the demilitarized zone (DMZ) between North and South Viet Nam.

The United States has no "policy desire" to move into the demilitarized zone or cross the 17th Parallel but "we have to take measures to insure the safety of our forces," Rusk told a news conference.

American B-52 jet bombers from Guam have struck at suspected North Vietnamese military targets in the DMZ four times since Saturday. The latest raid took place today.

Rusk said the United States wants arrangements made for the three-nation International Control Commission—composed of representatives from Canada, India and Poland—to go to DMZ areas being used by the Communists and make certain that the practice is halted.

"We would be glad to see the ICC move in and clean out the demilitarized zone," the secretary said. "We would respect it completely."

Rusk rejected a new Soviet charge that U.S. planes attacking petroleum depots near the North Vietnamese port of Haiphong shot up a Russian vessel in the harbor Tuesday.

He said there was nothing "to support the charge that we attack shipping," adding that all bombs fell in the "target area."

Reminded that the Russians complained about "bullets" rather than bombs, Rusk said these might have come from North Vietnamese aircraft guns.

Rusk said the United States refused even to accept the Soviet protest—the second growing out of raids on Haiphong area installations—because its "abusiveness" was not in accord with diplomatic practice.

In Saigon, the United States marked the second anniversary of the first bombing raid on Communist North Viet Nam today by sending the usual daily wave of jets north to do it again.

Sniper Notes Revealed; He Asked Autopsy

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — "I am prepared to die. After my death I wish an autopsy on me to be performed to see if there's any mental disorders."

Charles J. Whitman thus informed the world — in notes left near the murdered bodies of his wife and mother — that he did not expect to survive the Monday violence he inflicted on the University of Texas campus.

(See also story, page 9.)

The source, an official who requested anonymity, declined to divulge large portions of the two notes which he said included "statements about Whitman's father."

In a two-page note left in his Austin apartment, near the nude body of his pretty blonde wife, Whitman wrote of his impulses and pain and compulsions that mystified him.

"I don't quite understand what is compelling me to type this note," he began.

"I've been to a psychiatrist. I've been having fears and violent impulses. I've had some tremendous headaches in the past.

"I am prepared to die. After my death, I wish an autopsy on

Flames Raze Landmark Mansion, Ski School

$60,000 Damage To Novato Area Marina

One of North Marin's most colorful landmarks went up in flames last night as firemen hauled water for more than a mile in a desperate effort to save it.

Destroyed was a 70-year-old house at the Mira Monte Marina on the Petaluma River, three miles north of Novato.

Its history—before its purchase in 1961 by the Robert W. Winemans—included service as a hotel, as a center of bootleg operation, and for 25 years as a retired sea captain's retreat.

Loss of the building was estimated between $40,000 and $50,000 and its contents between $6,000 and $10,000 by Asst. Novato Fire Chief James Kidder.

One wing of the 12-room house was occupied by Wineman's stepson, Brian McQueen. The other was being used by students of the Master's Water Ski School, which is operated by the Winemans at the Marina.

The fire apparently started in grass near the building. It was discovered at 7:15 p.m. when the students smelled smoke while eating their dinner.

"The fire was first reported as a grass fire, so we sent out grass fire fighting equipment," said Kidder.

On reaching the scene, firemen found the flames had eaten through the wooden mud sills and into the supports beneath the floor of the old building.

"There was too much fire and we were hampered by the lack

NEIGHBORS WORRY

Beatniks In Plush Peacock Gap Pad

By PAT PERRY

Five barefoot "beatniks" living in an empty house in Peacock Gap have been questioned by San Rafael police after neighbors complained — but they'll continue to live in the swanky subdivision.

The owner of the house has given them permission to move in, and is reported to have said he'll move more beatniks into other Peacock Gap houses he owns if residents continue to kick up a fuss.

Living in the expensive home at 23 San Marcos Place are Marc and Lilli Hanchett, Steven Godwin, Jim Roberts, and Particia Ornelles.

They moved in Wednesday, a few days after meeting the owner of the house, William Simpson of San Francisco. "He picked us up when we were hitchhiking," said Mrs. Hanchett, 19.

The Hanchetts and their friends had been living at 507 Pineo Avenue, Tamalpais Valley. "We were sort of asked to leave by the neighbors," explained Hanchett. "One of our friends who is very poor, was picking up cigarette butts."

The home, which overlooks the bay, is immaculate with gold wall to wall carpets and lavish built-ins. In the vast living room is a sleeping bag. In the dining room are a couple of homemade chairs. There is no electricity or telephone, "we can't afford the deposit to have the utilities turned on" son the residents cook over small canned-

LBJ Apparently Resigned To Big Steel Price Boost

WASHINGTON (AP) — A united steel industry appeared to have emerged the victor today in a war of nerves to raise prices on some of its products in the face of White House pressure to hold the price line.

The $2-and $3-per-ton increases in the price of steel sheet and strip — the kind used in automobiles and other consumer goods — were called modest and inconsequential by the industry but denounced by the Johnson administration as irresponsible and inflationary.

Through last night, however, 11 companies — including the giants of the industry — had announced price increases effective next Wednesday on about 30 per cent of their output.

The Washington Post reported that Johnson definitely has decided to let the steel price hike stand. The Post said that the President, without anger or emotion, decided there was nothing he could do to force a price roll back.

If the increases stick, as now appears likely, it will mark the second major economic defeat for the Johnson administration within a week.

Only last weekend, striking airline machinists overwhelmingly rejected a contract agreement worked out under White House auspices which called for a 6 to 7 per cent increase in wages and other benefits, well beyond the administration's 3.2 per cent wage-price guidelines.

Those same guidelines call for relative price stability.

Giants Lose To Chicago Cubs In 10 Innings

CHICAGO (AP) — Ron Santo's two-run bloop single with one out in the 10th inning enabled the Chicago Cubs to defeat San Francisco 4-3 today.

Santo accounted for all four Cubs' runs, slamming solo homers in the second and ninth inning.

Tito Fuentes' homer in the top half of the 10th inning had given the Giants a 3-2 lead.

Santo's game-winning hit came off reliever Frank Linzy and followed singles by pinch hitter Lee Thomas and Adolfo Phillips and an intentional walk to Billy Williams.

The Cubs had tied the score 2-2 when Santo led off the ninth inning with his 25th homer of the season.

Santo's first homer gave Chicago a 1-0 lead.

However, Fuentes' two-run single in the third enabled San Francisco to move in front 2-1. Ollie Brown started the rally with an infield hit. A single by Hal Lanier and a walk to pitcher Bob Bolin filled the bases. Fuentes then hit a 3-2 pitch for a single to left, scoring Brown and Lanier.

Police Arrest Beatnik Campers

They were arrested yesterday in a raid by sheriff's officers n the C. T. Hill ranch near Big Sur-Pfeiffer State Park.

All were taken by bus to Salinas, where four were taken o Juvenile Hall and the others ent before Municipal Judge Eugene Harra here later in the day.

Wirtz Again Plays Down Strike Effect

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Labor Secretary Willard Wirtz old Congress today the 29-day-old airline strike still poses no threat to the national vitals.

Without taking a stand on Senate-passed legislation to end the strike, he warned House members that as long as any such bill is under consideration, there will be no meaningful talks toward ending the walkout.

Wirtz was the first witness as the House Commerce Committee took up a bill passed late yesterday by the Senate to send 35,400 striking union machinists of five major airlines back to their jobs for up to 180 days.

The Senate action, on a vote of 54 to 33, was denounced by strikers' chief who hinted that the mechanics might pull a slow-down if ordered back to work.

No final action is expected in

Reporter Upset At Uproar Over Beatle View Of Christ

LONDON (AP) — Maureen Cleave, whose interview with John Lennon set off a wave of Beatle banning in the United States, said today that Lennon actually deplores the fact that some people know the Beatles better than they know Christ.

"I do not think for one moment that he intended to be flippant or irreverent," said Miss Cleave. "He was certainly not comparing the Beatles with Christ.

"He was simply observing that so weak was the state of Christianity that the Beatles were, to many people, better known. He was deploring rather than approving this.

"Sections of the American public seem to have been given an impression of his views that is totally absurd."

BOYCOTT STARTED

Remarks by Lennon about Christianity, quoted by Miss Cleave in an interview that was reprinted in an American magazine this week, aroused a storm on some U.S. radio stations, particularly in the Southern Bible Belt. A number of stations banned the quartet's records and urged listeners to join the boycott.

Miss Cleave's interview with Lennon was first published in the London Evening Standard on March 4.

In it she wrote: "Experience has sown few seeds of doubt in him: Not that his mind is closed, but it's closed round whatever he believes at the time."

Then she quoted Lennon as saying:

RELIGIOUS DOUBT

"Christianity will go. It will vanish and shrink. I needn't argue about that. I'm right and I will be proved right.

"We're more popular than Jesus now. I don't know which will go first — rock 'n' roll or Christianity. Jesus was all right, but his disciples were thick and ordinary. It's them twisting it that ruins it for me."

Miss Cleave then wrote: "He is reading extensively about religion."

That was all the 1,600-word article had to say about religion.

In a telephone interview today Miss Cleave commented: "I am astonished that John's quotation should have been taken out of the context of my article and misinterpreted in this way. The interview, which took place and which appeared in British and also in some American newspapers five months ago, dealt briefly with the subject of religion.

HER EXPLANATION

"Mr. Lennon is very interested in it and has been reading several books. As I remember the interview, we discussed how the power of Christianity had declined in the modern world and his remarks were intended to illustrate this."

The Beatles are scheduled to open a 14-city American tour in Chicago on Aug. 12

From personal appearances and record sales the Beatles make a great deal of money in the United States. Their manager, Brian Epstein, left a sickbed Thursday to fly to the Pnited States to assess the situation.

DRAFT CALL MAY GO EVEN HIGHER

Congressmen Delay Recommendations For Revising Selective Service Laws

WASHINGTON (UPI) —The October draft quota of 46,200 men is already the highest monthly quota since the Korean War, but might go even higher, judging by what has happened all this summer as demands of the Viet Nam war increased.

In announcing the October quota yesterday, the Defense Department also raised the previously set September draft by 6,000—increasing the call from 31,300 to 37,300. This was done, officials said, because of lagging enlistments.

But it was the fifth quota in a row the Pentagon revised upward a few weeks after the original total was set.

If the trend continues, the number of Octobr inductees might ultimately exceed 50,000. As it stands, the call is the highest since the 53,000 Korean war draftees of May, 1953.

The highest calls of the Korean War were in April and May, 1951, when 80,000 men were drafted.

The number of American troops in Viet Nam is placed officially by the Pentagon at 283,000 and there has been no denial of speculation that it might grow by as much as 100,000 more by the end of th year.

The October draft call came as the House Armed Services Committee said it would delay recommendations for revising the draft until next year. It plans more hearings on the issue, including whether a lottery system should be used.

In a report to the House on six days of hearings it held in June the committee said it wanted to study further the findings of a presidential commission which looked into the draft.

The House hearings were triggered by complaints of members and many others that the draft is unfair. Even Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara has referred to inequities. The most common complaint has been that poor youngsters were put in uniform while the well-to-do went to college.

Sanitary Board First In Hall

San Rafael Sanitation District directors jumped the gun on everyone yesterday when they held the first meeting in the still uncompleted city council chambers at San Rafael's new city hall.

There were chairs for directors and staff members, but the audience seating has not yet been installed.

The city council hopes to meet in the new chambers Aug. 15.

Brown Opposes Formation Of River Basin Commission

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Gov. Edmund G. Brown says a proposed Pacific Northwest River Basins Commission should not be formed. But if it is, he says California should be a member.

Brown said yesterday water resources planning should encompass all Western states, including California.

"The greater the number of river basin commissions . . . the more difficult it will be to wisely plan the development of the West's water resources," Brown said.

The governors of Washington, Oregon, Idaho, Montana and Wyoming have called for creation of the commission to coordinate water development in their states.

But the proposal cannot become a reality until it is approved by Secretary of the Interior Stewart Udall.

Brown urged Udall to reject the plan.

But, he said, if the proposal is approved, "then California requests membership in the commission."

The governor said the Pacific Northwest and California's north coast region are the only areas of water surplus in the West.

"California is willing to have its north coastal area, a vital part of our waterbank for the future, investigated as part of a Western water plan and I sincerely hope Northwesterners will take a similar view concerning their resources," Brown said.

San Rafael Company Highway Bid Opened

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — The state division of highways has opened a low bid of $272,498 from Ghilotti Bros., Inc., San Rafael, for resurfacing about 34 miles of highway in Marin, Contra Costa and Sonoma counties.

The Marin county portion of the work will be on Highway 1, between Route 101 and a point about two miles south of Stinson Beach.

Reward Offered For Merced Killer

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—The Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, owners of the Parkmerced apartment - town house complex, offered a $10,000 reward yesterday for the capture and conviction of the person responsible for the shotgun slaying of two unarmed security guards.

Carl J. Fields, 63, and Jacob Remsing, 57, were slain Sunday in a garage of one of the apartment buildings.

Police today were tracing fingerprints found in a stolen auto believed to have been the getaway car. The car was seen in the area about the time of the shooting and was later found abandoned.

Hearing On District Formation Continues

With only three of the five commissioners present last night, the Marin County Local Agency Formation Commission continued a public hearing on formation of a Tamalpais Community Services District to a special meeting Thursday at 8 p.m. at the Civic Center.

Commissioners J. Wayne Womack and H. G. Marchant said they were ready to vote on the proposal, but chairman Jan Paul Dyk wanted to wait until "hopefully a full commission is present," or at least County Supervisor Peter H. Behr, a member of the commission, is there to vote. County Supervisor Byron W. Leydecker, the fifth commissioner, was also absent last night.

John Barrows, acting executive director for the commission, said the postponement would probably rule out one recommendation in the report of the reorganization committee on the district, which the commission was considering last night.

This proposal urged that the election on formation of the district be held with, or as close as legally possible to, the general elections in November.

While combiing the election would cost less, Dyk noted, the district formation might have a better chance in a separate election.

Another committee recommendation is that the Kay Park area in the proposed district keep separate sewer maintenance, while its park recreation and garbage collection services be taken over by the district. It would also take over sewer maintenance after ten years.

Barrows explained that sewage disposal in the Kay Park area, where the lines are "almost entirely below the water level," costs about three times as much as sewage disposal in the rest of the proposed district, because the poor condition of the lines in Kay Park allows extensiye infiltration of water into the lines in addition to normal sewage disposal.

Barrows said the committee's recommendation is based on the supposition that the district would replace Kay Park's lines in ten years through a special tax on Kay Park.

Dyk said his major reserva- that it might interfere with the eventual formation of a Southern Marin Sanitary District. But Barrows said he did not believe formation of the Tamalpais district would hinder formation of the larger district.

The Local Agency Formation Commission also:

1. Approved annexation of the property of Samuel A. Alini and Henry M. McArdle, northwest of San Francisco Boulevard, to San Anselmo.

2. Approved annexation of the property of Fred J. Steele, Theodore R. Schuman, William N. Napier and Cliff Jackson to the Novato Sanitary District.

Hoodlums Steal Guns In Chicago Area Troubles

CHICAGO (UPI) —Hoodlums broke windows in a suburban department store today and stole 24 rifles and shotguns from displays after a rampage of violence during which a policeman was shot by a sniper.

The gang disturbances broke out in Harvey, an industrialized community about 10 miles south of the Chicago city limits, and about 15 miles from where Dr. Martin Luther King is scheduled to lead marchers into an all-white neighborhood this afternoon.

Harvey Police Chief William McClarin said policeman Fred Hess was hit by a sniper bullet at about midnight after helping break up a gang of about 30 Negroes who had been burling rocks at cars, smashing store windows and stealing clothing and television sets.

Bret Harte Sewer Project Due To Begin Next Week

Work on the $211,555 sewer project along San Rafael's Bret Harte Road is expected to get underway next week, attorney Edwin N. Ness told the San Rafael Sanitation District Board yesterday.

Ness is attorney for the assessment district, which will finance the project to replace septic tanks with sewer lines along both sides of Bret Harte Road from Highway 101 northwest to Twain Harte Lane.

Directors voted 2-1 to adopt a salary step schedule for district plant operators and plant superintendent. Chairman Fred Jensen dissented with a blast at salary step schedules in general. The step increases are supposed to be granted on merit, "but they all get it," he said.

Mayor C. Paul Bettini, a district director, said a step schedule gives the employee an indication of the salary he can reach.

Directors adopted a pay-raise schedule for plant operator 11, ranging from $512 to $565 and plant operator I, from $593 to $654. They postponed action on a schedule for plant superintendent until further study. Plant operators were previously given pay increases from available funds in the sanitation budget.

The board also authorized repairs at the Francisco Boulevard pumping station at a cost not to exceed $900, and authorized the call for bids on a new pick-up truck.

Fracture

Kevin McCauley, 14, of Kent Avenue, Kentfield, suffered a severe compound fracture of the left arm yesterday when he fell from a tree near New Joe's restaurant in Corte Madera, the Sheriff's office reported. He was reported in fair condition today at Marin General Hospital.

POLICE INVESTIGATED—Beatniks Marc and Lilli Hanchett leave 23 San Marcos Place in the Peacock Gap area of San Rafael, where they're living with three friends and no furniture, or electricity.

heat stoves, use candles and sleep on the floor.

Yesterday, Fiedler A. Nordstrom, the next door neighbor, at 19 San Marcus Place, told San Rafael police about the beatniks. His wife said today that residents had presumed the home was vacant and suspected they were trespassers.

Police took Godwin, 19, Roberts, 17, and Miss Ornelles, 20, into the police station for questioning, but later released them. The police report said "neighbors are extremely perturbed."

This morning, Hanchett was cooking spam over a Sterno candle in the kitchen. "We were half way offended when the police came," he said. Barefoot and bearded, he doesn't object to being called a beatnik— "I think it's an honorable term. I've lived for years on the road, just to talk to folks about Jesus. The Lord took care of me every day."

Hanchett and his wife admit they're gentle beatniks. "We don't take dope, and we'd probably object if someone took it in our house."

What will they do if the neighbors ask them to leave? "I don't believe we'd go. I don't think they will, it takes a lot of bravery."

Today, the other three residents weren't home. Hanchett said his friends, one of whom he met in jail, the other hitchhiking, "don't believe in Jesus like I do, but they're tenderhearted."

Isn't it hard to be a beatnik in Marin? "I was raised here," said Hanchett, "but it is difficult." He and his wife live on welfare payments, and he works at the Civic Center a few days a week under the Dept. of Public Social Services work program. "I've washed a lot of dishes in my time, done a lot of gardening," he explained.

Mrs. Hanchett said that when Simpson, owner of the house, learned of the police investigation, "his reaction was that he's got other houses here and he'll have other friends like us move into them if there's any more fuss."

Simpson, who works in San Francisco, was contacted by San Rafael police and confirmed he'd given the group permission to live in the home.

Why did he give permission? "He came to our house in Tam Valley to visit us, and I talked to him about Jesus and read poetry. He understands us," said Hanchett.

points, highways, river and road traffic and anti-aircraft guns from Dong Hoi near the South Vietnamese border to Haiphong, 75 miles south of Red China.

U.S. planes also scattered more than 3 million propaganda leaflets over the Haiphong area. The leaflets told North Vietnamese the Hanoi regime does not dare admit sending troops into South Viet Nam since that would be a denial of its "aggression" charges against the United States. The leaflets showed pictures of North Vietnamese soldiers killed in the South.

Saigon officials said 786 Communists have been killed in the sweep by troops of the U.S. 25th Infantry Division and 1st Air Cavalry Division, many in this week's heavy fighting in the region 215 miles north of Saigon. Local commanders estimated the Red death toll at more than 900.

Raids over North Viet Nam yesterday marked two years since U.S. planes struck north of the 17th parallel for the first time in retaliation for Communist torpedo boat attacks on U.S. warships in the Tonkin Gulf. The raids occurred Aug. 5, 1964.

Pilots spotted three Soviet-designed surface-to-air (SAM) missiles near Haiphong, but no U.S. planes were reported either hit or lost.

College Board In Closed Session

Marin Junior College District trustees spent an hour in closed session last night, discussing what acting college president Irwin P. Diamond later termed "Reconsideration of a salary matter." He would not elaborate.

This is not a legal reason for a closed meeting under the Ralph M. Brown Act, which limits personnel matters to be discussed in secret sessions to matters of hiring and firing and charges involving persons.

Diamond said the board took no action after this discussion.

Johnson Housing Bill Passes Test

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The open housing section of President Johnson's civil rights bill survived its toughest House test today. A motion to kill the provision was defeated, 198 to 179.

The non-record "teller" vote came on a motion by Rep. Arch Moore, R-W. Va., to eliminate from the bill a modified ban on racial and other discrimination in the sale and rental of homes and apartments.

STEEL

President Johnson withheld direct comment on the steel price increases which snowballed yesterday with announcements by eight companies. Three others had announced hikes earlier, beginning with Inland Steel on Tuesday night.

Moyers declined to say what further action, if any, might be taken and added: "No one can force them to do what they do not want to do."

President John F. Kennedy forced a rollback in steel price increases in 1962 through moves which included a shift in Defense Department orders to companies which had held the price line.

And earlier this year a divided steel industry was forced to roll back partially some price increases. Bethlehem Steel announced last New Year's Eve a $5-a-ton increase for structured steel. Inland went along with the boost a few days later.

But under heavy administration pressure, U.S. Steel announced only a $2.74 increase and both Inland and Bethlehem backed down. The compromise was described by Johnson as within the guidelines.

Polish Commissioner Killed In Thailand

BANGKOK, Thailand (AP)— The Polish trade commissioner in Bangkok, Stanislaw Gled, 46, was shot and killed by unidentified persons as he was entering his house last night, a Polish spokesman said today.

Gled was returning home from the movies with his wife and daughter. As he got out of his car to open the gates, two persons opened fire, hitting him twice.

Wants Murder Charge Dropped

Richard Rock of Mill Valley, one of five suspects in last April's slaying of Painter's Union leader Dow Wilson, has asked the District Court of Appeal in San Francisco to dismiss murder charges against him because he was not tried within 60 days after his grand jury indictment.

He was indicted May 15, along with his brother-in-law, Carl M. Black, of Oakland, and Norman Call and Max Ward of Sacramento. His attorney, Marvin Lewis, said he was entitled to a trial before July 15.

The four are scheduled to go to trial Monday before San Francisco Superior Court Judge Norman Elkington on charges of conspiracy to murder Wilson, who was killed with a shotgun blast April 5.

Lewis contends there was no showing of "good cause" to justify an extension of the trial date beyond July 15.

Carpenter Death Is Manslaughter

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Two men have been charged with involuntary manslaughter in the death of a Stockton carpenter who was crushed under a load of steel at a construction project.

A coroner's jury brought the charge yesterday against V. D. McEwen, a vice president and Northern California superintendent of California Erectors Inc., and Daniel Smith, a crane operator. Both live in Concord.

Larry Moody, 21, Stockton, was killed July 8 when a load of steel rods broke loose at a San Francisco project.

the House until about the middle of next week on the bill aimed at splitting between Congress and President Johnson the politically sensitive responsibility for the first strike-ending legislation in nearly half a century.

Wirtz testified, much as he did over a week ago at Senate hearings, that neither defense interests nor the national health, safety or welfare have been imperilled by the strike. He noted that in the past Congress has acted against strikes only when some or all these interests were jeopardized.

About 85,000 workers are directly or indirectly idled, he said, and the airlines themselves are losing, at latest estimate, $8.2 million a day. This raises a question about over-all effects on the economy, he said.

"In terms of over-all economic threat, I do not find any threat going to the vitals of the economy," Wirtz told the committee.

Novato Woman's Dog Poisoned In Yard

Someone poisoned her dog with arsenic while it was confined to her back yard, Mrs. Dorothy Elaine Farmer, 40, of 17 Lambert Way, Novato, complained yesterday to Novato police.

She said she had checked the collie about midnight and it was alive. When she again saw it about 6:30 a.m., it was dead. A veterinarian reported it as arsenic poisoning, police said.

County Officials Tell Of Tam Valley Plans

Tamalpais Valley's general plan was reviewed last night at the monthly meeting of Tamalpais Valley Improvement Club by Paul C. Zucker, county planning director, and Ned Parsons, senior planner.

Zucker urged residents of the valley to recommend changes in the plan to bring it into conformity with changes that have occurred since it was adopted in 1959.

Committee To Draft Shrub Policy

The Marinwood Park and Recreation Commission last night formed a committee to draft a policy on what to do when residents plants flowers or shrubs in land owned by the Marinwood Community Service District.

Chairman Manuel Morris said the district does not wish to discourage the green thumbs of homeowners, but wants to be sure any such planting is in keeping with the commission's ideas of landscaping.

The district, he explained, wants to avoid disputes such as those which could arise if a new homeowner chooses to rip out the work of a previous resident.

The Marinwood Park and Recreation Commission also:

1. Accepted a gift of basketball equipment from Marinwood Fire Chief James W. Cameron.

2. Announced that a junior Olympic program will be held at 10 a.m. Aug. 13, and said a Hawaiian "luau" is planned for September or October.

3. Told Park Director William Gordon to continue a study on the impact of moving the recreation program for the handicapped for Terra Linda.

of water in our five trucks," Kidder said.

Although the house stood beside the plentiful waters of the Petaluma River, the trucks had to shuttle back and forth to the nearest hydrant—a mile and a half away—at McGraw-Hill Book Co. and the Silveira ranch.

The tinder dry, well-seasoned wood of the old building burned like a torch, lighting up the fading afternoon and burning on into the night, visible for miles around.

Firemen remained at the scene until 4:03 a.m. today and returned later for mopping up operations.

When built in 1894, Kidder said, the house was located on an island. Subsequent filling made a small peninsula of it beside the river.

It was built originally as an exclusive duck club for wealthy San Franciscans. Later it became a night club, and was one of the liveliest nightspots in the county, according to Kidder.

It has also served as a hotel and, during prohibition was a center of bootleg operations, because of its convenient river-front access to the bay.

For 25 years before its purchase by the Winemans, it was the home of the well-known sea captain, G. St. Maur Stocker.

Two Arrested As Theft Suspects

Two Sebastopol men were arrested in San Rafael late yesterday, and booked into county jail for investigation of burglary, after San Rafael police found two suitcases in their car full of clothes believed to be stolen.

Larry Ten Brink and Manuel Luna, both of Sebastopol, were arrested after Edward J. O'Connell called police about a man behaving suspiciously in the courtyard of 1583 Lincoln Avenue.

Patrolmen Robert W. Marvin and Joseph M. Leonard spotted a man answering the description in a car, and found two suitcases full of clothes. The officers said the clothes were stolen from the home of Alan Jean Dupuis, 1533 Lincoln Avenue.

Greenbrae Youth In Bridge Event

David Crossley, son of Mrs. Lura Crossley, 15 Via Cheparro, Greenbrae, played today in the Spingold Team Bridge Game in Denver with three generations of bridge players from the Crossley family.

Crossley, 18, won top score in his section at the Summer National Tournament of the American Contract Bridge League Wednesday with his grandfather, C. F. Crossley of Palo Alto.

The two Crossleys played in the Spingold game with David's brothers, Bill, 19, and Bob, 15, and his father, Dr. C. F. Crossley Jr. of Las Vegas.

me to be performed to see if there's any mental disorders."

There followed one of numerous statements about his father, the source said, and then Whitman told his plans for his wife.

Whitman then again wrote of his father.

Then: "I intend to kill my wife after I pick her up from work. I don't want her to have to face the embarrassment that my actions will surely cause her."

At this point, Whitman apparently was interrupted. The rest of the note was in handwriting. It began:

"At 3 a.m. both dead."

The rest of the note, the source said, concerned Whitman's feelings and his relationship with his father. According to statements released from other sources, the University of Texas student mentioned in the handwritten portion that he "hated his father with a mortal passion."

The neatly hand-printed note found at the plush apartment of his mother was addressed to "to whom it may concern" and began:

"I have just killed my mother. If there's a heaven she is going there. If there's not a heaven, she is out of her pain and misery."

"I love my mother with all my heart."

Once again, Whitman wrote an attack on his father, mentioning his opinions about the relationship of his parents.

The grand jury yesterday withheld the notes from the public because they "contained unversified statements of an insane killer concerning an innocent individual. . ."

The grand jury report also said Whitman was "a crazy, deranged" man who killed his wife, his mother and then carried an arsenal to the University of Texas tower to kill another 13, including an unburn baby, and wound 31 with gunfire.

Youngster Injured Critically

A 13-year-old San Rafael boy suffered critical head injuries yesterday when he was thrown from a motor scooter and under a cement truck at Jacoby Street and Francisco Boulevard West just south of San Rafael.

The boy, Bruce Edward Higgins of 255 Canal Street, was a passenger on the scooter driven by Terence Nolan, 14, of 6 Wolfe Grade, Kentfield.

Nolan was treated at Marin General Hospital for a compound fracture of the left forearm. Higgins is in critical condition in the hospital.

The Highway Patrol said Nolan's motor scooter went out of control as he rounded a corner to turn into Jacoby Street at 3:10 p.m. Higgins was hurled under the cement truck, waiting to make a left turn, and Nolan was flung against the side of the truck.

Nolan was cited for speeding

Boat Collision Victim Is Moved

Pedro Orosco of San Francisco, survivor of a boat collision in which his fishing companion died yesterday, was transferred today from Marin General Hospital to Kaiser Foundation Hospital in San Francisco, where he was reported in fair condition.

Orosco, 65, and Matteo Pacini, 68, also of San Francisco, were fishing in a 15-foot outboard motorboat in Racoon Straits off Tiburon when they collided with a 27-foot cabin cruiser, according to the Coast Guard. Pacini died of injuries en route to a San Francisco hospital.

The Coast Guard said the cabin cruiser belongs to Lit Ng of Salinas and that Tsutomu B. Ishisaki of San Francisco was at the helm. Neither Ng nor Ishisaki was hurt.

Radio Stolen

OBITUARIES

Charles Graham Succumbs

Charles Graham, a resident of Belvedere for the past 10 years, died this morning at a local hospital after a lengthy illness. He was 70.

A native of Texas, he spent most of his life in Beaumont, Tex., where he and his brothers owned and operated a department store.

On selling his interest in the store, Graham came to San Francisco in the early 1950's, moving to Belvedere ten years ago, where he maintained an apartment on the lagoon.

In recent years, he has lived in the Belvedere home of his daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. James Michael, at 107 Golden Gate Avenue. He also maintained a summer place in Guerneville.

He was a member of the Commonwealth Club and the St. Francis Yacht Club.

Besides his daughter, he is survived by a brother, Will Graham of Beaumont, and two grandchildren.

MORGAN HANNIGAN

FAIRFIELD (AP) —Solano County Coroner Morgan L. Hannigan was found dead at home today, the apparent victim of a heart attack.

Mrs. Jean Hannigan said she discovered her husband's body when she went to wake him.

Hannigan had been coroner and public administrator eight years and recently won a no-contest primary nomination.

Funeral services were pending.

WALTER DREYER

The internationally-known engineer started working for PG&E after graduation from the University of California in 1916.

He was an authority on the integration of steam and hydro electric power systems and had made feasibility studies in the use of atomic electric power.

ESTHER CAREW

Funeral for Mrs. Esther Carew, wife of the late Frank Carew, will be held Monday at Harry M. Williams Mortuary, San Rafael, at 11 a.m.

Mrs. Carew, who died Tuesday at the age of 62, was a native of Pennsylvania and resident of San Rafael for the past 15 years, residing at 123 North San Pedro Road. She was a retired nurses aide.

Mrs. Carew is survived by her sister, Mrs. Grace Edwards, of Elmira, New York. Burial will be in Golden Gate National Cemetery, San Bruno.

Board Discusses Salary Changes

The Tiburon Fire District board last night discussed salary adjustments to eliminate inequities in the salaries of district employees.

Board secretary George Drejes said the board did not consider pay raises as such, but discussed locating district employees in their proper place on the existing pay scale, effective Jan. 1, 1967.

The board also decided to replace some water lines in the vicinity of Spanish Trail Road.

Four On Ballot For Tiburon Post

Deadline to file for candidacy in the Sept. 13 election of two men to the Tiburon Sanitary District board passed yesterday with one incumbent and three challengers having filed.

Candidates for four-year terms are board secretary James Murray, and Robert A. Sterling, Robert H. Scarth and Edward P. Ward.

Ruby-Setting Ring Taken From Home

Loss of a ruby-setting ring and several nickels from a jar was reported in a burglary of the home of Robert E. Clover, 309 Tomales Street, Sausalito, sheriff's officers said today.

Clover said entry was via an unlocked bedroom window. Value estimate of the ring was not given.

Homestead Use Permit To Be Studied

An appeal into the granting of a use permit for low income housing for the aged in Homestead Valley is a major item on the agenda for Monday's meeting of the Marin County Planning Commission.

Commissioners are scheduled to meet at 9 a.m. The appeal is number eight in line.

Marin County Housing Authority is appealing certain conditions to the permit imposed by Zoning Administrator Thomas E. Cordill. These include reducing the number of units from 30 to 20. Several local residents are appealing the use permit itself on the grounds the land is established for single family housing.

Matters scheduled for discussion include the U.S. Post Office Department policy requiring curbside mail boxes in new subdivisions and methods of preserving historical buildings. Consideration of plans for a 100-unit motel near the Civic Center has been continued until Aug. 22 at the request of the applicant, Halstead and Co. Also continued to the same date is a use permit appeal lodged by Atherton Land and Development Co.

Ihem two on the agenda is further considerations of Marincello school site locations. A study of a tentative map for 98 lots on 70 acres near Donahue Street in Marin City will take up item three.

The fourth item is an amendment to Title 21 regarding the dedications of lands for parks and recreation purposes.

Item six on the agenda is consideration of plans for a warehouse on Didie Street, just outside San Rafael.

Final item for the morning session will be an appeal against a variance which would reduce setbacks on several lots in Marin Highlands.

On reconvening at 2 p.m., the commission will consider a new development plan for a 10-acre site at Lucas Valley Road and Highway 101.

Nicasio Gun Burglary Jury Deadlocks; New Trial Due

The lengthy burglary trial of Stanley Shrout, 28, and Robert Wayne Davis, 18, ended last night in a hung jury for both defendants in Marin Superior Court.

Judge Jordan L. Martinelli scheduled Tuesday for setting a new trial date.

Shrout, of 51 Valencia Street, San Rafael, and Davis, of Fresno, were accused of smashing a window of the Nicasio home of John G. Ziel on Jan. 28 entering and taking six guns.

The trial, which started July 18, was extended several days because defense attorneys Ron Bondoc of San Francisco and J. M. Lopes of Visalia challenged the legality of admitting evidence related to the use of a bloodhound dog in the case.

Judge Martinelli, sitting on the bench as a substitute judge, ruled however, that such testimony is admissible. Deputy Dist. Atty. Jerry Herman, who prosecuted, said bloodhound testimony has been ruled admissible by 16 states, and disallowed in four others.

There has been no appellate court ruling in California on the issue, he said. Bondoc has incicated that if convicted, the defendant would, appeal, with the bloodhound testimony as partial grounds.

The dog, owned by Sheriff's Capt. Michael McLean, was used to establish two trials, one to a site near where the stolen guns were found, and another to within about 20 feet of a parked car.

Jury deliberation started at 3:30 p.m. yesterday and ended at 10:30 p.m.

Radio, Tachometer Reported Stolen

Theft of a car radio and tachometer was reported yesterday to Mill Valley police by Robert Lee Vigurs, 521 West Blithedale Avenue.

Vigurs said the theft occured sometime between Wednesday and yesterday afternoons while his car was parked at home. Also taken were a gear shift knob and cigarette lighter.

The first hammered iron in the United States was made at the Weymouth Igon Works in New Jersey in 1754.

Birchers, Cranston Both GOP Targets

A Republican leader from Marin attacked extremism yesterday and another challenged State Controller Alan Cranston.

Mrs. Lee Sherry of San Rafael, Northern California vice chairman of the State Republican Central Committee, urged the GOP to denounce "the cancer of extremism such as is embodied in the John Birch Society.

CALL FOR PLAN

She called for adoption of a plan condemning political extremism at the California Republican Convention in Sacramento this weekend.

Republicans must answer charges by Democratic officials that the Republican party "has become a Birch party of racist and bigots," she said.

In a talk presented to the iKwanis Club of San Rafael, Assemblyman William T. Bagley, R-San Rafael, responded to Cranston's recent claim of bigotry in the Birch Society.

"While controller Cranston is stripping the last bit of political milk from the Birch cow, he continues his methodical and mechanical milking of California's $4 million interitance tax machine," Bagley said.

SAYS IT'S BIGOTRY

He said it was "crass political bigotry" for Cranston to denounce the Birchers on one hand while "perpetuating his own insidious operation by taxing widows and orphans to support his cronies who he appoints as inheritance tax appraisers."

Cranston could save a lot of energy "by directing some of his frenetic frenzy toward the far left of the Democratic party instead of bleating about the Birchers," Bagley said.

"I know the Birch Society to be a bunch of frustrated bigoted extremists. That's really not news. What will be news, but the day will never come, is when a contrite controller Cranston disavows the sleazy sluggards of the far left who would destroy our way of life, and our country to boot."

Bagley challenged Cranston to admit that "the same 'far out' Democratis in California who now masquerade as 'peace politicians' were founders and leaders in such groups as the Fair Play for Cuba Committee, the Sane Nuclear Policy Committee, Women for Peace, the Du Bois Club, the Berkeley Viet Nam Day Committee and the Progressive Labor Party."

Bagley has a long time foe of the inheritance tax appraisal system administered by Cranston. He promised to renew his efforts to abolish the political tax appraiser system.

Peninsula Police Use Dogs To Quell Crowd

MENLO PARK (AP) — An advancing line of 20 policemen accompanied by dogs today dispersed a crowd of 300 to 400 Negro youths who screamed epithets at them and hurled rocks and bottles.

Another 30 officers with dogs and riot guns had been called to the Negro neighborhood by a dispute that followed a cafe fight.

Two Negroes were arrested. Several policemen and Negroes suffered minor injuries, and many windows were broken in stores and autos.

Trouble began before midnight yesterday in the east part of Menlo Park, a suburb of about 30,000 south of San Francisco. Two policemen were called to stop a fight at a cafe in the Negro neighborhood.

Police ended that fight without making an arrest but were attacked by a crowd of Negro youths after they returned to their patrol car. The scuffle with police started, officers said, when Negroes started shouting obscenities.

A call for help brought more police, San Mateo County sheriff's deputies and California highway patrolmen. A large crowd gathered.

The crowd began throwing objects at the police and their vehicles. "Wait until tomorrow night!" and "We live here, you don't!" the crowd shouted.

The crowd finally was scattered by the 20 officers who advanced in a line, carrying billy clubs.

The Public Health Service reports that recognition of the fact that alcoholics can be helped has stimulated many communities to provide programs which enable victims and their families to receive treatment and, often, to begin it early.

British Planes Banned By Spain

LONDON (AP) — Spain, which is trying to get Gibraltar back from Britain, has banned all flights of British military planes through Spanish airspace.

The ban became effective yesterday.

Spain on Jan. 21 closed its airspace to all military planes of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization flying to and from the British base at Gibraltar, saying the action was taken because of "risks and consequences to Spain of Gibraltar's use as a NATO base."

Un-American Quiz For Berkeleyans

BERKELEY (UPI) — Three members of the Viet Nam Day Committee will testify before the House Un-American Activities Committee Aug. 16 in Washington.

Jerry Rubin, Steve Hamilton, and George Ewart Jr. yesterday were subpoenaed to appear at an open hearing by the committee.

The VDC has been the leader of Bay Area demonstrations to protest the U. S. role in the Viet Nam struggle.

McKee's Goes From Irish Go-Go To McKee's Haufbrau Eeating

Back in the "good food" category—or it will be in another week or so—is McKee's at 721 Lincoln Avenue, San Rafael.

Next Monday it will close down for a complete remodeling. No more a-go-go scenery. The stage is coming out. And there'll be other changes to remove evidences of its recent months of dancing and night-club activities. Work on the place will take about a week. Then it will reopen under the full name of McKee's Hofbrau—not McKee's Irish A-go-go.

Jim McKee has bought out his brother, Bill—and the "good food operation will be conducted by none other than Don Caseldine, who started it there when it was first opened almost four years ago. You'll be able to get those succulent sandwiches and special dishes that used to cause a lineup at lunch time clear through the front door.

This appetizing food program will extend from 11 a.m. to 9 p.m. daily--except perhaps for Sunday closing. Watch this page for a reopening date and further information.

SUMMER MONTHS have always seemed to be the popular months for starting new restaurant ventures—and August is one of the heaviest.

Last Friday we mentioned the first anniversary of Bill and Adolph's West End Villa, which has been celebrating throughout the week.

It also was in August of last year that Cherish Inn at the Strawberry Town and Country Village got under way with its novel assortment of dishes from eight different countries. And MacArthur's in San Anselmo opened, too, with an excellent menu—but since then, except for lunch, has closed out its food operation.

TWO YEARS AGO Bob and Meta Kringe opened the Black Forest in San Rafael during August—and their German dinners are continually favored by many. So, too, are the lunches. This was formerly Coppa's Cafe.

And it was the same month that Angelo and Vera Camporeale decided to return to the restaurant business by purchasing the Hickory Pit further down Fourth Street. And in August, Ansara Enterprises bought the Gold Nugget on the Miracle Mile from Tom and Iva Marshall.

Ben and Virginia Farlatti, who last week opened the Tiburon Lodge in full swing, just two years ago took over Tomahawk Lodge in Novato—and chopped off Tomahawk to make it short.

Also among two-year celebrants this month are Jimmie Louie and his sons. While they had operated the restaurant at Travelers Inn for several years, it was not until August, 1964, that they acquired the bar. And if I am not mistaken, it was in August that year that Juanita Musson of Juanita's Galley fame in Sausalito opened up her new operation at the old Verdier's Resort in Sonoma County, where she is today. Two years ago this month Dean and Irene De La Montanya took over the former Villa Lucchesi in San Geronimo, that since has gone back to its original name of Oak Tree Inn under Ray and Dee Brunal.

GOING BACK another year, the same month saw Max Key take over the Rancho Rafael in Ignacio from John Rickey. This is where Jud Tomlinson recently leased the food facilities and now operates the dining room. His chef is Jay Snyder.

Another three-year observance is that of the Country Boy at Bermuda Palms, opened originally by William Dennis and now run by Joe Satterfineld. It's just three years, too, for Mr. K. on downtown Fourth Street, San Rafael.

AUGUST, 1962—and Jess Fisher was opening up the historical Black Point Inn. And Jim Jackson took over King Cotton, which has since changed hands to those of Jim Bigelow.

Five years ago this month the Kingston Trio opened the Trident in Sausalito—it was formerly the Yacht Dock . . . San Rafael Joe's reopened on Fourth Street, San Rafael, after remodeling and enlarging . . . And Ernie Van Asperen opened the Dock in Tiburon.

Just a year before that in August the Spinnaker opened its picturesque over-the-water dinery on the Sausalito Sandspit. It still stands as one of Marin's most beautiful food palaces.

Beyond that I'm a little hazy. It does seem to me that Johnny and Pat Mangini opened the Cellars in San Rafael about August, 1957—but I can't be sure.

RESTAURANTS COME and restaurants go—but at this midway point between annual dining and wining guides which we usually publish in February, there hasn't been too much change. If we were to publish another one today we probably would list 114 eating places—just five more than those we showed in operation last February. But many of the new ones were also listed then as coming openings.

So hang on to that last issue if you still have it. At least until next February.

MUSEE D'ART INTERNATIONAL, which has a continual exhibition in the large banquet room at Dominic's Harbor Restaurant, San Rafael, will present another collection of original graphics by European masters, beginning next week and running through Sept. 10.

Marin Dining And Wining

SAN RAFAEL ATTORNEY P. Roy Vallarino, who is president of the Rio Nido Enterprises, Inc., notes that this popular Russian River resort will extend its open season beyond the traditional Labor Day weekend finale to Oct. 15. Rio Nido is currently undergoing extensive expansion and modernization, accounting for the prolonged season.

Newly appointed to handle public relations and advertising for the resort is Ed Slevin and Associates of San Francisco. Principal Ed J. Slevin, a resident of San Rafael, has been signed as management consultant for the vacation and entertainment complex.

SOON TO OPEN in San Francisco: The Empress of China, a new venture of Kee Joon on the sixth floor at 838 Grant Avenue. Probably Tuesday or Wednesday, next week.

ALSO, IF YOU are in the city and looking for good food, there have been some excellent reports on the service and meals at the Pine Tree Restaurant at 3601 California Street. That's out in the Laurel Hill section.

If you want some Marin connection to make you feel at home here, it is operated by the same owners who have the Blue Rock Inn in Larkspur. Johnny Weiland's partner Paul Marracq runs the Pine Tree.

The "good reports" didn't come from either of them, by the way. They don't even know that I know.

RESTAURANT DE L'EUROPE on the San Rafael Miracle Mile at Fourth Street and Santa Margarita Drive announces that on its day of closing, Tuesday, it will open doors for lunch or dinner to private parties of 25 persons or more. Any of the regular Continental or American dishes on the menu may be ordered for banquet fare. Or, with two or three days advance notice, special dishes will be prepared on request. Seating inside or outside in the patio.

Brown Favors Mrs. Warschaw

LOS ANGELES (UPI) —Gov. Edmund G. Brown has announced his intention to vote for Carmen Warschaw as state party chairman at the Democratic Convention in Sacramento Aug. 13-14.

Said Brown yesterday: "I feel personally that Mrs. Warschaw deserves recogniton for her long, dedicated service to the party."

This, he added, would be the only party office for which he would express a preference.

Brown also said that Mrs. Warschaw's oppoent, Assemblyman Charles Warren, Los Angeles, would take a major post in his Southern California campaign organization after the convention.

Sausalitan On Mend

John (Tiny) Bates, driver for Sausalito Taxi Co. for 17 years, is recovering from an illness at Parkway Convalescent Hospital in Terra Linda. He has been at Moffett Hospital, San Francisco, for about a month prior to being transferred to Terra Linda.

Truman Returns To Independence

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Former President Harry S. Truman, hospitalized nearly a week with an intestinal disturbance and for a routine checkup, returned to his Independence home yesterday.

The former chief executive entered the hospital last Saturday suffering from what was later described as severe colitis. His physician, Dr. Wallace Graham, then said Truman would remain to complete tests in an annual health check.

Mr. Truman is "continuing to progress," a hospital spokesman said in announcing that he had been dismissed.

Russ Stiffen Up Tourist Penalties

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet Parliament has decreed punishment of up to a year in jail for any foreigner who "maliciously" violates its travel restrictions three times.

The July 23 decree, published in the latest edition of the Soviet legal bulletin, lists the specific offenses of changing a dwelling place or leaving it temporarily without permission and deviating from an approved itinerary.

State Looks Favoraby On Shasta County Dam Plans

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — The state department of water resources has found that construction of the Box Canyon dam project in Siskiyou County would be economically, engineeringly and financially feasible but it raised some questions as to how costs of operation would be met.

The proposed project, just southwest of the city of Mt. Shasta, would be a zoned earth and gravel dam, 209 feet high, with a crest length of 1,250 feet. Storage capacity would be 26,000 acre feet, and the surface area would total 430 acres. The project would include onshore recreation facilities.

Cost of the project, including staged onshore recreation facilities is estimated at $7,380,000. The district proposes to finance it with a grant of $4,310,000 under the state's Davis-Grunsky Act, and $2,840,000 authorized by the federal government to promote the economic development of southern Siskiyou County.

The department, in its study, found that Box Canyon did not conflict with the state water project and would have a statewide interest. Based on a projection of 116,000 visitor-days of use during its first year of operation — in 1970 — the project would be economically feasible. The department valued a visitor-day use at $2.30 and said this would mean the project would have a benefit-cost ratio of 1.03 to 1.

The department said the annual average costs of operating and maintaining the project would be $172,300. In addition, the average annual cost of constructing future stages of recreational facilities would be $40,400, for a total annual cost of $212,700 a year.

"The district anticipates meeting the annual costs of operating and maintaining the project and constructing future stages of onshore facilities through user fees and concession revenues," the department said. "However, as pointed out in Bulletin No. 162, revenues from recreation areas historically average less than one-half the project operation and maintenance cost.

"In this event the remainder of the money necessary to operate and maintain the project will be derived from property taxes," the department said.

The report concluded that the district had a tax base of $65.9 million which would be sufficient to provide any funds that might be needed..

A tax rate of 20 cents per $100 in assessed value would produce some $131,000 a year which would require user fees of some $81,000 a year for the break-even point.

Construction of Box Canyon could be expected to increase by several times the pounds of fish presently being taken from streams that would be inundated by the reservoir. The project also would provide more favorable flows and improved temperatures in the Sacramento River below the dam, the department said.

The reservoir would be a cold-water, natural trout producing lake, with many area of water less than 30 feet deep which would be natural fish food producing areas.

Boys' Match Play Starts Novato Fire

Two boys, 8 and 11, playing with matches in the back of the W. V. Cannon home at 1766 Marion Avenue, Novato, started a grass fire at 2:50 p.m. yesterday that burned five acres and for a time threatened the William R. Berry house at 1650 Marion Avenue.

The fire was first reported by Mrs. Daniel Burke at 1760 Marion Avenue, who saw the boys playing with the matches, according to Asst. Fire Chief James Kidder.

Fanned by the breeze, the fire surrounded Berry's Nob Hill ranch house. Firemen were able to save the house, but there was $200 damage to the paint. The fire also burned 14 almond trees and 20 feet of picket fence.

It burned three acres of grass on the Berry property and two acres on the Harry Lundblad property at 1155 Seventh Street, Chief Kidder said.

Sniper, Mother Receive Roman Catholic Burials

LAKE WORTH, Fla. (UPI)—The Roman Catholic Church today gave sniper Charles J. Whitman a Christian burial because "God in his mercy does not hold him responsible" for his last actions in slaying his mother, his wife and 13 others.

A mass of requiem for Whitman and his mother was celebrated at the Sacred Heart Church where Whitman once served as an altar boy and the two were buried side by side later in a funeral plot bedecked with garlands of red roses, carnations and daffodils.

The Rev. Thomas Anglim, who celebrated the mass, read from a prepared statement which earlier had been distributed to family and friends explaining why one of the worst mass murderers in history was given a Christian burial.

A procession of more than 30 cars carried the sealed caskets of Whitman and his mother to the Hillcrest Memorial Cemetery in West Palm Beach where another priest, the Rev. Eugene Quinlan, blessed the graves with holy water.

Whitman's father, Charles A. Whitman Jr., 47, who broke down at the conclusion of the church service, remained composed at the graveside. He sat with the family, including his father and mother, under the shade of a green canopy against the blaze of a hot summer sun.

Brothers of the sniper, Patrick, 21, and John, 17, sat with their father.

At the conclusion of the mass Father Anglim read:

"As pastor of the family and with approbation of diocesan officials I wish to say a few words of explanation as to why the Catholic Church is giving a Christian burial to Charles J. Whitman," Rev. Anglim's statement said.

"As you may know, Catholic moral theology teaches, that no serious crime may be imputed to an individual unless he has committed with sufficient knowledge and full consent of the will.

Park Commission Holds First Meeting

The Tiburon Park and Recreation commission held its first meeting, an informal organizational meeting, last night at the Tiburon City Hall.

The commission postponed election of officers to its next regular meeting Aug. 31, and decided that starting in September the commission will meet on the first Thursday of every month.

GM Chevrolet Division

Malibu Sport Coupe and Malibu 4-Door Station Wagon. Both with 8 standard safety features, helping to make each as safe a car and as fine a value as Chevrolet has ever offered.

To save money and, quite often, lots of it.

They know that prices will never be better at their Chevrolet dealer's than they are in August. They know their present cars will never be worth more in trade than they are right now. And they know a good value when they see one, like a Chevelle Malibu Sport Coupe—the most popular model of America's most popular mid-size car.

It comes with thick foam-cushioned seats, deep-twist carpeting, vinyl up one door and down the other, padded instrument panel and sun visors for added safety. And all those Body by Fisher niceties sit solidly over some of the surest handling features a car can have: Ball-Race steering. Full Coil suspension. Wide-stance wheel design for steady cornering.

So you see, "Chevrolet in August" makes a lot of sense. Fine cars. Exceptionally good buys and all those beautiful driving days left. Real Malibu weather. Act, my friend.

GOV. FRANK O. CLEMENT

LBJ Pal Defeats Kennedy-Style Foe

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (UPI)—Former Gov. Bufort Ellington, who left the Johnson administration to campaign against a Kennedy-style liberal, today was virtually assured of another four-year term as governor.

The 59-year-old Ellington defeated John Jay Hooker Jr., a 35-year-old Nashville attorney in yesterday's Democratic primary election. The Republicans did not stage a gubernatorial primary and it is regarded as unlikely that they will draft a candidate for the general election.

Gov. Frank Clement, regarder as a "boy wonder" the first time he became governor, in 1952, avenged the only political defeat of his career in a Democratic primary for the U.S. Senate. He edged incumbent Sen. Ross Bass, who beat Clement two years ago to fill the unexpired term of the late Sen. Estes Kefauver.

Clement will have a tough GOP opponent in the general election. Howard Baker Jr., son-in-law of Senate Minority Leader Everett Dirksen of Illinois, defeated Nashville attorney Ken Roberts for the Republican nomination. Baker gave Bass a hard fight for the post in 1964, polling 48 per cent of the vote.

Hooker, who was an assistant to Sen Robert F. Kennedy when he was attorney general, conceded defeat shortly before 1 a.m. EDT.

He said the loss wasn't a "bitter thing" but "defeat doesn't like ice cream."

Returns from 2,500 of the state's 1,741 precincts gave Ellington 368,443 votes to 322,538 votes for Hooker. Clement had 339,997 votes to 331,019 for Bass who conceded at 4:30 a.m. EDT tday. Baker won big over Roberts. The count was 103,164 to 33,636.

Kansas Plane Crash May Have Killed Californians

HUNTER, Kan. (AP) —Four persons were killed today in the crash of a private plane on a farm near Hunter.

Mitchell County sheriff's officers said the badly burned bodies of four adults were found. They were not identified.

The plane went down on the farm of W. E. Kadel, who said he heard the crash at about 5 a.m.

Kadel said after the craft flew over his home it seemed to circle before going down in a field about a quarter-mile from the farm house. He reported the plane immediately burst into flames.

A veterinarian, Dr. Robert Erickson, who flies a plane, lives in Chico.

At least two women were believed among the victims. Kadel said officers believed that a third body might also be that of a woman.

One unconfirmed report indicated the plane was on a flight from Manhattan, Kan. to Sidney, Neb.

The Federal Aviation Agency in Manhattan said it had a report that four persons had been killed in the crash, but it declined to release any other information.

Burglaries Found In House, Yacht

Rocco D'Agostino Jr., owner of Rocky's Place in San Francisco, reported theft of $825 cash and a $2,500 wristwatch in a burglary of his Forest Knolls home, sheriff's deputies said today.

Officers said D'Agostino, of 50 Montezuma Avenue, said the loot was taken from a metal cabinet in a rear storeroom. There was no forced entry of the locked cabinet or house, however.

The watch was described as a Swiss make of white gold.

Don D. Ishmael, 33 Mount Rainier Drive, Lucas Valley, told deputies someone boarded his yacht at Lowry's Yacht Harbor, San Rafael, by opening a rear canvas cover. Taken, he said, were a $190 television set, a $45 radio, and a two-man life raft.

Wounded Veterans Flown Home Quickly

By FAYE MARLEY
Science Service

WASHINGTON — It was a small load of 26 men that landed in the huge U.S. Air Force Military Airlift Command (MAC) plane Wednesday at 12:55 p.m. But it made history.

The plane was the first MAC aircraft to speed sick and wounded servicemen from South Viet Nam to Andrews Air Force Base, just outside Washington, taking a modified polar route via Elmendorf Air Force Base, Alaska, and down through Canada on a diagonal line.

SIX A WEEK

There will now be three MAC planes making this trip each week, with three more picking up men at Clark Air Force Base in the Philippines, and dropping them at Travis Air Force Base, Calf.

Twelve of the 26 men had been wounded; that is, hurt by "injuries resulting from hostile action," in armed services language. The others were ill or had been hurt in accidents.

The two "petal" doors at the rear of the aircraft opened slowly for unloading the men into buses with a big red cross on the side. Some were bound for Walter Reed Hospital in Washington and some for farther away. Two-thirds of armed services hospitals are east of the Mississippi River, and that is the reason the MAC planes are coming straight through to Washington instead of bringing the men cross-country from California as they have been doing, at the cost of two or three days.

SPEED BEWILDERS

Walking through a bus of woulded men on litters or sitting with legs in casts, one sees expressions of relief to be back, of bewilderment at the speed of the trip (it takes only 20 hours of flying time, with two refueling stops, one at Yokota Air Base, Japan, and one at Elmendorf).

Science Service interviewed some of them, such as the Peurto Rican lad named Jose Parrilla-Morales, who said he enlisted 14 months ago and was hurt only four days ago at 7 o'clock in the morning.

Most of the wounded had been in other hospitals, getting "stabilized," before being brought back for U.S. treatment.

There was Sgt. Richard K. Wright from near Baltimore, who was taken to a Yokohama, Japan, hospital on the 22nd of May after being wounded May 14, six miles from Bencat, 40 miles north of Saigon.

"I got a hole in my leg and two holes through my foot, but they didn't have to amputate," he said cheerfully. He was on his way to Ft. Meade Hospital and his wife and little boy, who will be three on Sept. 13.

FOUR OPERATIONS

"I've had four operations and will have the fifth for skin grafting," he explained. "I never blacked out, but they gave me a lot of Demerol for pain. At first an ambulance jeep picked me up; then I was flown outside Saigon in a copter to the 93rd Evac. Hospital. I left Ft. Meade last July a year ago."

And there was the quiet, 22-year-old patient on a litter who suddenly developed arthritis in both knees about two weeks ago. His name is Ernest Bishop, his home is Smithpost, Pa., and he will stay in Valley Forge Hospital where he will be treated. He hopes to finish college and teach school.

Congressman L. Mendel Rivers (D-S.C.), chairman of the House Committee on Armed Services, was there to board the MAC planes and greet 19-year-old Franklin Gore of Loris, S.C., one of the battle casualties.

None of the kinfolks were there. The soldiers will get free phone calls when they arrive at their hospital destinations, and then the "folks" will come.

Brig. Gen. Harold E. Funch, Surgeon General, Air Force Command, told a news conference that there is a 60-day evacuation policy. The men who are airlifted back in this way cannot get well in a 60-day period. Men with flesh wounds and sprained ankles are kept nearby for quick recovery and return to action.

Women Had A Lot To Do With Auditorium Plans

Ponder the circumstances which enabled Board of Supervisors chairman Byron Leydecker to announce the other day that money finally is in sight for an early start on the long-awaited auditorium at the Civic Center.

It was the men—Senator John F. McCarthy and Assemblyman William T. Bagley in Sacramento along with Board Chairman Leydecker, whose positions carry the necessary prestige and authority—who persuaded the powers that be to make the necessary state funds available.

Both Senator McCarthy and Assemblyman Bagley are influential in the Legislature. And when a Board of Supervisors chairman comes to Sacramento, his position "back home" means that bureaucratic doors open almost automatically in Sacramento.

As Chairman Leydecker indicated, however, that isn't the full story.

Behind every successful man, the story goes, there is a woman. In this instance, behind the three men, there were two women who exerted some considerable influence. The two are Ursula McCarthy, wife of the senator, and Marcelle McCoy, manager of the Marin Art and Garden Fair.

The women never allowed the men to forget for a moment that funds were needed for the auditorium.

And the women themselves made an occasional trip to Sacramento to plead their cause first-hand before the officials concerned.

In its original form, the state budget just adopted by the Legislature provided $1,750,000 for aiding district and county fairs of the state. Marin was counting on a share of this help to get the auditorium project launched.

By a stroke of his pen, Governor Brown cut a half-million dollars from that appropriation. The immediate prospects for Marin's auditorium looked dim.

At this point, Senator McCarthy got busy. The half million did NOT go back into the budget, but the ultimate budget adopted by the Legislature and signed by the governor contains a provision spelling out Marin's priority on a share of the money for local fairs. Marin's priority calls for more than $330,000 over a three-year period.

This is the assurance that enabled board chairman Leydecker to announce the early prospect for an auditorium at the civic center.

Ever since the Board of Supervisors first voted to start accumulating money toward a veterans memorial nearly two decades ago, many have dreamed and longed for a community auditorium.

There was a time when some within the veterans' organizations selfishly held out for building or buildings that would be designed almost exclusively for veterans' organization use.

Gradually, veterans' organization spokesmen came to accept the idea of a general purpose building which could be used by veterans' groups along with others.

This led to the "combination" concept on the order of the Cow Palace. The idea that it could be used for a variety of purposes.

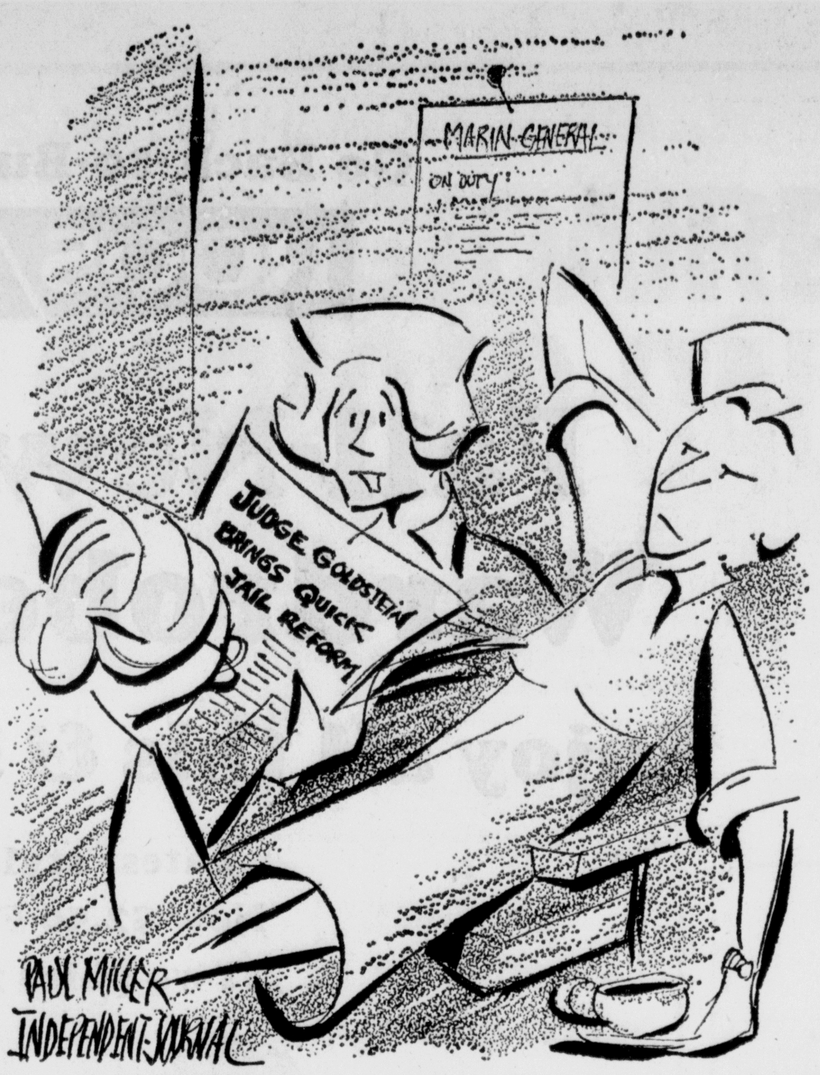
But when Architect Aaron Greene of the Frank Lloyd Wright Foundation went into the matter thoroughly, he made some enlightening findings.

Communities with multipurpose auditoriums (with flat floors) didn't do well financially. Acoustics were far from the best for performing arts presentations. As convention facilities, they turned out to be white elephants.

The wise course seemed clear for Marin. We should have an auditorium designed primarily for performing arts but modifiable to a degree so that it could be used for other purposes such as banquets and possibly fair displays.

It hasn't been easy for all the veterans' organization representatives to accept this approach. But there have been signs that they see and accept the ultimate wisdom of this course now.

Actually, there could be no finer memorial to our veterans than the beautiful structure now envisioned, usable by veterans' groups and in connection with the Art and Garden Fair as well as a center for performing arts presentations, appropriate to Marin's cultural nature.



"We should bring him over here . . . If he can get that kind of action for suspects, imagine what he could do for nurses!"

Proposed Truth In Packaging Bill Hides Deceptive Aspects

WASHINGTON—This "truth in packaging" bill, now before Congress, is just about the most deceptive product recently put out on the shelves of the political supermarket.

How could the voters, how could the consumers, how could anybody resist such an alluring buy — costs nothing, does everything, and mighty handy for the politicians on the eve of the congressional elections?

And Congress may very well buy it—to the end detriment of everybody — unless the truth about the "truth in packaging" bill catches up to what is being so glibly said about it.

THIS LEGISLATIVE package, called "truth in packing," is improperly labeled. If that's all it contained, it would be innocent though unnecessary.

But it contains ingredients not listed on the slogan-table of contents and when you open it up—as many congressmen, perhaps, have not yet done—you will find that it gives vast new powers to government regulatory agencies:

To so standardize package shapes and sizes as to keep new products off the market.

To restrict the consumer's freedom of choice in the market place under the guise of protecting the consumer.

To permit government regulators to set the rules as to what is "deceptive" and deny to the manufacturers the right to prove that their packaging and labeling are not deceptive.

MOST INDUSTRY spokesmen have made it perfectly clear in testimony before the Senate and House commerce committees that they support state and federal law to protect against fraudulent and deceptive labeling and packaging—misleading words, shapes or sizes. They support full and visible labeling of content and price to permit comparisons.

But such laws are already on the books, as the chairman of the Federal Trade Commission, Paul R. Dixon, has testified. The truth is that the FTC and the Food and Drug Administration have inadequately enforced the laws in this field.

And now the "reformers," instead of asking for more enforcement which is needed, are asking for more law which is not needed.

There is plenty of law to prevent bottles, cans and packages from being so slyly shaped that a false impression of the amount of content leaps out at you from the shelf. But the bill, as originally drawn, so standardized packaging that distinctive, though non-deceptive, shapes were instantly ruled out. Proponents then added a clause allowing existing differences, such as the Coca-Cola bottle, but preventing such differences in the future.

BUT NON-DECEPTIVE, inventive packaging is crucial to new products which often physically cannot be measured into the same form and size the government regulators in Washington think it nice to prescribe. Such suffocating over-regulation would be a liability to the consumer, stifling the competitive innovations of the manufacturer, and a drag on the economy.

There is a good deal to be said for not monkeying around with the system of competitive food distribution which has made the United States the best-fed nation at the lowest cost in the world.

Most of what is in this pending "truth in packaging" bill has little to do with truth in packaging and, I believe, would be hurtful to consumer and manufacturer alike. What does concern truth in packaging is not more law but better enforcement.

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Toddler Tender Brickbat Justified

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Your Brickbat re the lack of toddler tenders was justified. Child rearing is almost as controversial as religion and politics, but as a happy mother of four (under 8) I know a variety of the joys and hazards of the American housewife.

Yet it never ceases to amaze me when I see the growing lack of interest and responsibility parents show toward their own children.

The loving family unit is fast becoming rare, and its extinction is aided by the mother whose role stops after feeding, dressing and yelling at the children.

Surely there can be some happy medium between the narcissistic woman, obsessed with her spotless house, organizations, tennis, etc., who is forever shoving her child outdoors, and the doting, permissive mother who never lets her child out of sight.

To those who can, but don't (or won't) supervise their toddlers when they go out to play, your Brickbats are well deserved, and heaven help the little tykes!

Wants Proposal Reaction Expressed

Editor, Independent-Journal:

The Mill Valley School Board has asked for parents' reactions to the building proposals contained in the progress report of the school district's Professional Council.

Parents of young children at Old Mill, Marin Terrace and Homestead schools will want to look carefully at the proposal to change these schools to kindergarten-third grade.

A cogent reason given for planning a middle school for sixth, seventh and eighth grades is that the present two-year span at Edna Maguire does not allow the child time to become oriented to his surroundings.

Would this not also apply to the fourth and fifth graders transported to Park and Tam Valley schools for two years only?

A thorough survey of the preschool population of Mill Valley seems advisable, in order to determine whether great need exists for additional space in Old Mill, Marin Terrace and Tam Valley and Homestead areas and also whether pressures in the Park and Tam Valley areas will allow the addition of extra classes at those schools.

Meanwhile, it is important that Mill Valley parents express their reactions to these proposals, as the board has asked. For those wishing further information, copies of the progress report are available at the district office, 26 Miller Avenue.

Letters should reach the board before the opening of school, Sept. 12.

Surprised At Perspective Lack

Editor, Independent-Journal:

I was surprised at the lack of perspective of Mr. P. J. Rowland, president of the Marin County Taxpayers Assn., in his letter of July 28 regarding land taxation.

First of all, the single tax doctrine, I believe, does not advocate the taxation of improvements but only that of the natural resources, land itself. The reason that land alone represents only one-third of the total property tax base in California is because land is grossly undertaxed or excluded altogether while all land improvements are grossly overtaxed in proportion; witness the conditions in any city where a lot with a slum assessed at a market value of $10,000 cannot be had for four times that, while the owner allows it to stand in a state of speculative decay as a tax deduction rather than be fined by heavy improvement taxes.

Secondly, re the terrific discrimination in such a tax system (the vacant lot and the lot next door with a house being taxed at the same rate), both lots being in the same locale would certainly be taxed at a similar rate, as under such a "discriminating" tax program we would be concerned only with the value of the raw land. This would inevitably force the vacant land into use, giving jobs to many people and at the same time unfreezing our now frozen real estate market. One of the greatest advantages of such a tax system would be felt by the homeowner himself, as there would be no improvement taxes.

All things considered, Mr. Rowland, could a general transaction and sales tax system offer as much?

A Psychopath Waiting For Us

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Every time you read of a gun-slaughter, now a daily commonplace, you can thank the National Rifle Association, at least in part. The NRA's powerful lobby has prevented the Congress time after time from enacting any gun-licensing law whatever. Some psychopath may be mail-ordering a gun this moment to use on you, dear reader. Or on the President. Thank the NRA for preserving this particular "constitutional right."

Separate Transit System An Answer

Editor, Independent-Journal:

H. Mellen's letter published July 30 appears even more confusing on solving Marin's transportation problem than our various public agencies. More freeways have not solved the rush hour traffic congestion for very long anywhere. Not enough people will use buses when they must use the same congested routes as autos.

Most transportation experts agree that the best long range solution is a completely separated transit system. A new separate freeway system for buses only could solve Marin's problem for many years, could be converted to rail or rubber tired trains when traffic warrants. Financing such a system will not be easy. A second deck on the bridge for autos wil lpractically eliminate a transit system because of the high cost of crossing the Bay.

If enough letters are written to Bridge Directors, state and local representatives, the second deck may be saved for a separated transit system.

New Look Blocked By Civil Rights Act

By LYLE WILSON
United Press International

THE CIVIL RIGHTS ACT of 1964 stands as a challenge to the new look in race relations.

The new look is an "action now" movement to open affluent suburbs to the Negro families who are now concentrated in rat-infested city slums.

The new look is developing faster than you think. The Hartford, Conn., metropolitan area is giving it a voluntary trial.

THE OBJECTIVE of the new look is to obtain for children in the crumbling slum areas of Negro ghettos an entry into the predominantly white schools of the affluent suburbs.

The end result sought is to correct racial imbalance, so-called, regardless of cause. City Negroes would use Supreme Court decisions to open the doors of predominantly white schools to the Negro children of predominantly black inner city schools.

The federal government supports this objective. It has some support from federal judges and is likely to have more. The open housing section of the pending 1966 civil rights bill was directed toward opening suburban facilities, notably schools, to Negro slum children.

THE CHALLENGE to these educational goals contained in the 1964 Civil Rights Act consists of a single paragraph which seems to withold legislative sanction from what the Johnson administration and the civil rights leaders are trying to achieve.

If legislative sanction is not withheld, it is an incontestable fact that it was not authorizing or requiring correction of racial imbalance. The 1964 act precisely defined the desegregation required in public education.

The definition was vigorous in its limiting language, as follows:

" 'Desegregation' means the assignment of students to public schools without regard to their race, color, religion or national origin but 'desegregation' shall not mean the assignment of students to public schools in order to overcome racial imbalance."

ALSO TO BE remembered is the fact that when the Supreme Court ordered desegregation, it did not stipulate that it also was ordering integration of the public schools or any correction of de facto racial imbalance.

Thus it is that the court has ordered desegregation without requiring also integration of the school systems.

School officials would be forbidden to create Negro school districts but if the districts are there the neighborhood school breaks no law if its pupils are all Negro or all anything.

This situation is called de facto segregation; segregation by circumstance but not by law.

20 YEARS AGO

Southern Marin Sanitation District board members favored a portion of Marinship property as a site for the district's sewage treatment plant.

Marin Junior College announced that it will no longer accept applications from out-of-county students because there are 1,100 already on file and the college will have to operate many courses on two shifts.

Work started on demolition of San Anselmo's Main School and plans were announced for two new schools, Wade Thomas School and a school on Butterfield Road.

Marin City Negroes held a meeting in protest of the lynching of two Negro men and their wives in Walton County, Georgia.

Measure To Allow Retirement Fund Investment Needs Study

By HENRY C. MacARTHUR

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—One of the propositions on the Nov. 8 ballot which needs some study before voters go to the polls is No. 1, the measure which would permit investment of state retirement funds in common stock.

Heretofore, the objection to this measure, which suffered one defeat by the voters of the state, was the fear that public funds would be used to play the stock market.

However, some of the objection has been removed through restrictions on amounts of money that can be used for common stock purchases, and the nature of the stocks to be purchased.

PROPOSITION 1 would repeal a section of the constitution that has been on the books for some 94 years. The amendment was in the constitution before there were any retirement funds. It originally was adopted, according to the California State Employees Assn., which is sponsoring the new measure, to prevent state and county treasuries from buying early-day railroad stocks, and at the time of its adoption, was a reasonable safeguard for the protection of public funds.

Many limitations are contained in the proposed amendment to protect the public's money and at the same time allow the retirment funds to grow with the times.

ONLY 25 PER CENT of any retirement fund could be invested in common stocks, and no more than 5 per cent of the money available for investment could be put into any one company. No more than 2 per cent of the fund's assets could be invested in a single common stock.

Additionally, stock purchases would be limited to domestic corporations capitalized at $100 million or better and listed on a national exchange and which have histories of dividend payments in eight of the past 10 years, including the last three years.

These constitute sufficient limitations on investments to avoid most possibilities of losses, although there never is any assurance that the price of any common stock will remain static or advance in value.

IN THEORY, half of a retirement fund is composed not of public money, but funds contributed by public employees themselves. The state is responsible for the other half of the fund. Consequently, the funds to be invested—that is, 25 per cent of the total—could be called public employee money rather than public money.

The state retirement fund is big business. It amounts to some $2.3 billion and increases by $235 million annually. If the average investment yield of this fund increases by only one-tenth of 1 per cent, the fund income would increase by more than $2 million annually, which would be a benefit both to government employees and to the taxpayers.

A DOWAGER, all set to leave for her summer place, had the man — a very short and weary man — call for her bags. They were heavy. He huffed and struggled with them for half an hour before he got them all stashed in the elevator. Just before the car hit bottom, the woman suddenly explained: "I can't wear this dress with the blue Bentley!" And as the little man knew she would, she added: "That means I'll have to change all this luggage too."

Sausalitan Hooked On Fishing; Pharmacy Hits Electronic Age

Jackson Perry of Sausalito got "hooked" the other day in San Rafael and it was the same old story.

He was in a San Rafael store buying a fishing lure. By accident, he hooked his thumb with a trout lure. It was too small to push through so he went to the doctor.

The doctor removed the hook and told Perry, "You're still fishing around. I remember you when I used to take the fish hooks out of your fingers when you fished off the municipal pier when your mother (Dr. Charna Perry) was out on calls."

CENTRAL PHARMACY in Sausalito has gone into the electronic age using computer cards for customers to itemize all tax-deductible purchases. The customers, according to new owners Donald A. Neuberger and Harry V. Smith Jr., are given a monthly card which also includes a running report for the year.

There was fog on Throckmorton Ridge the other day and we called the Marin Visitors Bureau in the Gazebo at Sausalito to see what the visitors were doing.

"It's beautiful here," said Carol Keys of San Rafael. "There's no fog. I hear it's over by Fort Baker. I've given out at least 85 pieces of literature today."

Asked about questions tourists ask, Miss Keys, a San Rafael High School student, said they ask her how to get to Mount Tamalpais, Muir Woods and Civic Center. Sometimes they want to know where the beatniks are and, often, the rest rooms. "You can't always tell about the tourists coming on good days or bad days. They come and go," said Miss Keys.

TOMMY BICKERSTAFF reports that one of his relatives, Kevin Aureguy, 9, of Mill Valley caught a rare specie in Tahoe last week end — an 18-inch German Brown Trout.

We went to the Marin County Dog Training Club the other night at Brown's Hall. The dogs go around and around, their masters following on leashes. "Stand, sit, stay," say the masters. It is very amusing.

The masters come from many places. We met William Bevans of San Quentin with his Keeshond sitting outside on the steps waiting for the place to be opened, Leigh Swigert, 17, of Belvedere, and Louis Ray of San Mateo.

Miss Swigert said she got her dog, part golden retriever, German shepherd and coyote, from a Utah Navajo Reservation. "They were going to shoot her because she's just a stray," said Miss Swigert.

Ray said there was no class in San Mateo at this time so he decided to attend in Mill Valley.

CAROLINE HANDL, a mite of a woman from Marinwood, was trainer and kept the masters and dogs in line on the hardwood floor barking, "keep them loose but keep them under control; now, let's try it, sit your dog at your left side," and "forward, about turn to your right." The dogs whined and, for the most part, followed through.

Pin, a fox terrier owned by Jean Paterson of San Anselmo was the shortest; Rosie, an Irish wolfhound owned by Phyllis Kermoyan of Mill Valley, tallest. Olive Hanna, who calls roll, served coffee.

The man would call and say, "I'm ready" and Mae Quinn would drive the chrome-plated car to meet the Quinns in Lytton Square. She always double-parked. The man came out, always a gentleman, his hat on his head, got into the car. Then Mrs. Quinn made a U turn and slowly drove the guy home. She took care of the Irishman 48 years. Mae.

Shaving Your Legs Is Better Than Keeping Crease In Pants

WASHINGTON — It appears from all the fashion reports and magazines that women are going to be wearing pants this year. Not just slacks or pedal pushers or pajamas, but real pants. The pants suit for women has come into its own and the question about who wears the pants in the family is no longer very funny. Where will it all end?

THE FIRST MAN to actually wear a skirt in public was Mr. Horace Gringsby, an advertising executive, who on October 20, 1967, showed up at his office in one, half as a joke and half as a protest gesture because all the women in his office were wearing pants.

After everyone had their laugh and made their snide remarks, curiosity got the better of a few of the men in the office and one asked, "How does it feel?"

"Quite comfortable," Horace admitted. "Your legs have much more freedom and it's a lot cooler than pants."

"But don't you have to shave your legs?" someone else asked.

"I suppose so. But it's easier than keeping a crease in your pants."

The following week several of the men started wearing skirts and the agency was getting a name for itself.

BUT THEN some smart aleck cop arrested Horace and charged him with impersonating a woman. Horace, who had played center on the Yale football team, took the case to the Supreme Court who in an historic 5 to 4 ruling said there was nothing wrong with a man's wearing a skirt as long as he didn't yell fire in a crowded theater.

Pretty soon skirts for men were being featured in Esquire, Playboy magazine, and Men's Wear Daily. The college male students bought skirt and sweater sets, the Brooks Brothers crowd went for navy blue and slate gray skirt suits, and on the West Coast the surfers started wearing mini-skirts over their bathing suits.

But while the change was welcome, something still didn't look right. Then someone realized that men's shoes didn't look good with skirts, so a shoe company in Chicago introduced high heels to go with the new outfits. This made all the difference and in no time at all men were wearing high heels to go with their skirts.

ONE OF THE complaints though was that in winter the men's legs got cold. So a men's hosiery manufacturer put out a line of nylon stockings with a garter belt attached to men's shorts. There was such a run on them at first that they had to be rationed—one pair to a customer.

While the lower half now looked very attractive, most men felt they could dress up the upper half of their outfits. A few started wearing necklaces, some put on bracelets, and still others started wearing earrings.

THE JEWELRY didn't look too good against short hair, so many men started to let their hair grow below their shoulders, or, if this wasn't possible, they wore wigs.

Men were spending fortunes on hairdressers and also cosmetics, first rouge and then lipstick, and finally nail polish.

As the emphasis on men's clothes and appearances became greater, more and more department stores turned over their space to them, and millions of dollars of advertising budgets were switched to the male market. The Paris designers and the Seventh Avenue manufacturers gave up making female clothes as there was no money in it.

In the short span of ten years it became a man's world. And what happened to women during that period? They kept walking around in pants and nobody ever bothered to look at them again.

COUNTY COMMENT

By WILLIAM D. (BILL) FUSSELMAN

Chickens Coming Home To Roost On One-Man Power Structure

FUSSELMAN

Ordinance No. 1398, which was passed by the board of supervisors without rescinding No. 788, in force since December of 1955, purports to give the administrator life and death control over all department heads—both elective and appointive. This, many people as well as myself, contend is of questionable validity.

ON APRIL 29 I warned that the majority members of the board, in letting the "one man power structure" have full reign, were bound to have the egg factories come home to roost, with the resulting egg on face routine. Well, the chairman of the board, whether he realizes it or not, had the distinction of having received the egg decoration last Tuesday.

It seems, according to an item in one of the county weekly papers, that Thomas F. Campanella, the newly acquired additional assistant of the administrator, warned the board in a letter that any committee other than he was recommending, on the mental health set up, might run into "lack of staff support" among other dangers such as with the authority of the county administratvie ordinance and the office of the county administrator. According to the article, the audience "heard one loud and protesting squeal from the Board Chairman, chafed under what he called his responsibility to the taxpayers.

" 'The whole thing's being operated at staff level. I want a committee on it.—I don't like the hidden nature of spending taxpayers' money.—The thing's developed at staff level and it gets to be suddenly sacrosanct. We could have been doing a hell of a lot more over the past two years. Now suddenly it's done in two months.' "

The chairman has been one of the strongest advocates of the system, which amounts to abdication on the part of the board.

WHEN I CAME home from from some appointments on Tuesday, I turned on the radio, which was tuned to KTIM. Instantly the room was filled with the booming voice of the Ross Valley supervisor. He was shouting down practically everyone who was trying to talk on the airport situation. (You should go up to the Civic Center and ask them to play back the tape recording. Wow!!!) He, too, was highly concerned about taxpayers' money. The amount he seemed most concerned about was $25,000 for purchase of some land for possible right of way to the airport at Novato. Over the months he has constanly heckled the airport commission on one matter after another. We definitely need to develop our airport potential. If he can suggest a better site, I believe he should do so instead of making it difficult for the men on the commission who have been working wholeheartedly since long before he was on the board.

His concern about the $25,000 was puzzling when compared with his attempt to involve the county in a $750,000 tideland purchase at Corte Madera.

There seems to be a story going around that the new jail to be built in the Hall of Justice complex at the Civic Center will only hold 100 prisoners. This looks like there should be another look see. If there is to develop a lower ratio to population, wonderful. But I wonder.

Tiburon City Budget On Council Agenda

California Will Join National Police Net

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — The police officer on the beat or on patrol will have immediate access to a nation-wide system of information beginning next January, Bradford M. Crittenden, California Highway Patrol commissioner, said.

"Mobility of the criminal in our society makes it absolutely necessary for law enforcement agencies to have immediate access to information which will enable them to apprehend law violators," Crittenden said. "A system to do just that will become operational in January of next year. That system is the National Crime Information Center."

The nucleus of the system will be computers of the FBI in Washington. Police agencies of cities and states throughout the nation will be connected to the system and this immense amount of information will be available to any member. The system was patterned after the CHP's own Auto-Statis, a system for recording and disseminating information on stolen and wanted vehicles.

Initially, the NCIC will carry only data on stolen autos, property and wanted persons. Other information will be added as the system develops.

The CHP headquarters in Sacramento will be the switching point of the system for the western United States. Police agencies with inquiries will contact the patrol. If the information is not available in the CHP records, the query will be relayed directly to the FBI in Washington, with the entire process taking only a few seconds.

Guard Retires From Prison, Moves To North

Following 25 years as a guard at San Quentin Prison, Malcoim (Buck) Burnett, 65, retired this week to reside in Walla Walla, Wash., with his wife, Maybelle.

Burnett, who has been in state employment for 40 years, served as an attendant at Sonoma State Hospital in 1924 and Stockton State Hospital in 1925. He became a guard at San Quentin Prison in 1926 leaving five years later to work at McNeil Island Federal Penitentiary in Washington and returned to San Quentin in 1943.

During World War II, Burnett worked as a guard in the San Quentin harvest camps near Woodland, returning to duty at the prison after the war.

Burnett's wife, who started teaching in Washington public schools in 1923, taught sixth grade at Greenbrae Elementary School from 1954-1965.

Crews Repair Slide Damage

TRUCKEE (UPI) —Traffic flowed normally yesterday over Southern Pacific's mainline near the California - Nevada line after crews completed repairs necessitated by a mudslide and derailment.

The mudslide late Tuesday caused the derailment of 31 freight cars. The westbound track was blocked for four hours and the eastbound track was not reopened until Wednesday afternoon.

One passenger train, the eastbound City of San Francisco, was delayed for an hour. Other trains experienced slight delays.

Write-In Error On Young Tally

An error in the June primary tally of Marin County Republicans who wrote-in the name of Assemblyman Pearce Young for State Senate was admitted today by Secretary of State Frank M. Jordan.

The correct total should have been 251 votes rather than 36 as released by Jordan's office, bringing the total Republican write-in votes to 1,470 for Young and 680 Democratic write-ins for Sen. John F. McCarthy, R. San Rafael.

Young totaled 50,537 primary votes compared with McCarthy's 41,757 with 19,147 to 7,985 in Solano County, 12,829 to 7,838 in Napa County, but trailing the Republican candidate in Marin 18,561 to 25,934.

PATIENT'S POINT OF VIEW — Nurse Rita Scardaci learns how to carry a patient in case of emergency evacuation by playing the role of the patient for fire marshal Rolf K. Stahlbaum of the Kentfield Fire District.

READING A HEARTBEAT — Miss Scardaci listens intently as Dr. Joseph J. Arons explains how to read the delicate machinery in Marin General Hospital's Heart Unit. The lesson was part of her first-day, orientation tour of the hospital.

Hospital Volunteer Returns As Nurse

Rita Scardaci, 21, did volunteer work at Marin General Hospital in her spare time while she was a student at Sir Francis Drake High School. Now, three years later, she is again working at the hospital. This time, though, she is on the payroll.

During the interim, she studied three years at the St. Francis Hospital School of Nursing in San Francisco. She graduated as a registered nurse, took the job at Marin General and, this week, found herself right back in school.

Every new employee at the hospital must take the hospital's orientation course. For nurses, the course lasts two weeks. Other employees attend just the first day of classes.

Miss Scardaci joined the two-week class which began Monday. Along with other new employees, she took a tour of the hospital and heard lectures on Marin General history and philosophy.

She and her classmates learned from fire marshal Rolf K. Stahlbaum of the Kentfield Fire Department how to put out a fire with one of the fire extinguishers hanging on hospital walls. By acting the part of the patient, she learned how to carry a patient on her back should the hospital have to be evacuated in an emergency.

For the rest of this week and all of next week, Miss Scardaci and other nurses studied and will continue to study while on the job. Once the training is completed, she will assume the duties of a full-time nurse.

Miss Scardaci, who lives at 102 Brookside Drive, San Anselmo, is actually starting on her third tour of duty at Marin General. After her first year at nurse's school, she spent a summer as a nurse's aide at the hospital. She hopes to specialize someday in the treatment of burn victims and plastic surgery.

CLASS IN RECESS—A tour of Marin General Hospital leads one eventually to the cafeteria and an excuse to take a break. Here, nurse Scardaci stops for shop-talk and a cup of coffee with Ilona Bellak, assistant director of nurses, and Mattie Dean Keene.

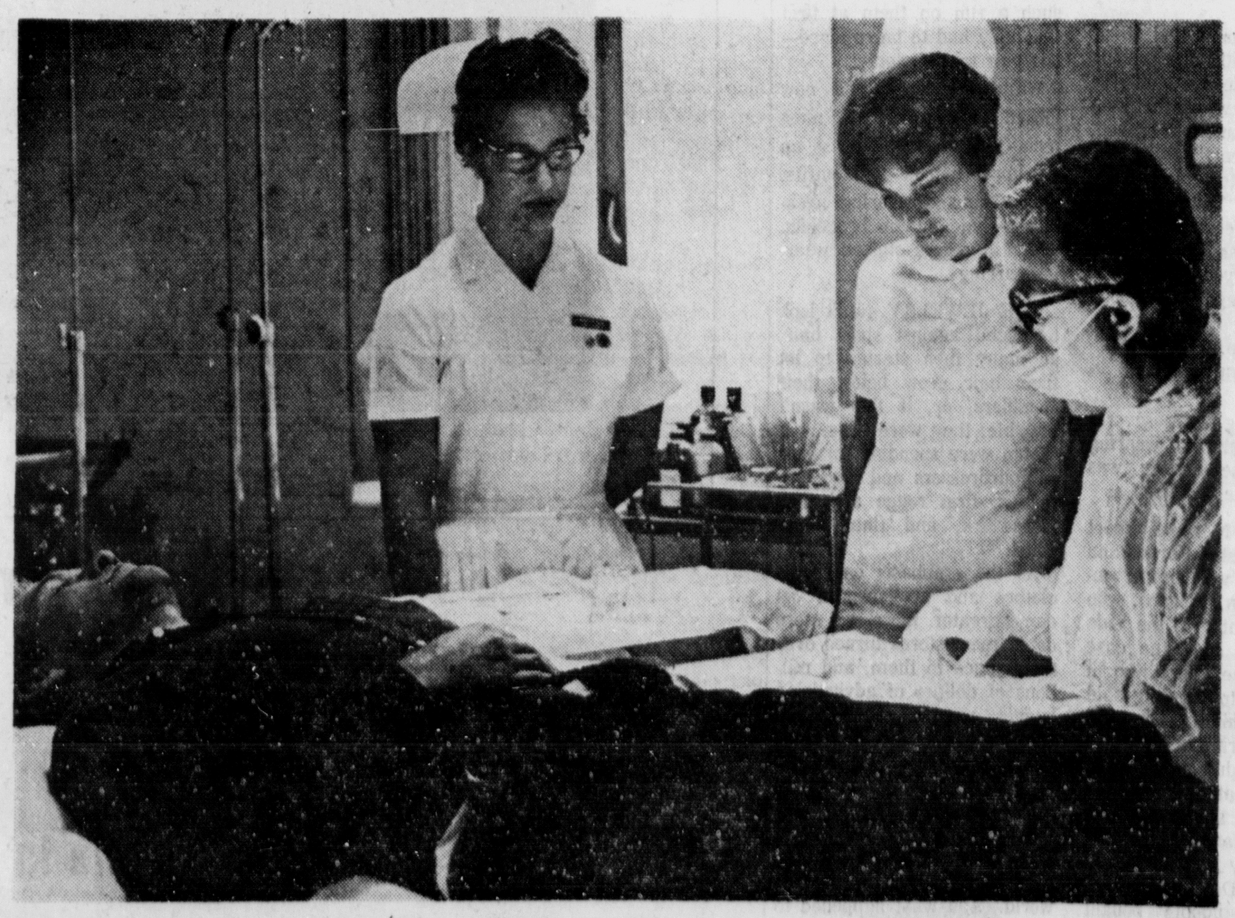
MEET OUR YOUNGER PEOPLE—Miss Scardaci's tour of the hospital took her through the pediatrics ward, where she stopped to talk with charge nurse Mary Kay Spadafore and Ted Brawley, 9, of Greenbrae. Pulling balloon in the foreground is Glenn Camporelli, 5, of San Rafael.



PRACTICAL EXPERIENCE — Miss Scardaci's visit to the emergency room at Marin General Hospital coincided with the arrival of Donald M. Jones with an injured hand. She watched as head nurse Francine Vietes assisted Dr. Edward S. Vanderhoof.

Touring Coed Now A Super-Patriot

By PAT PERRY

Marti Bolton has just returned from Eastern Europe. She brought home to Terra Linda a Russian Cossack hat, a piece of barbed wire from the Berlin Wall, some broken glass from the smashed American Embassy in Poland — "and a feeling of super-patriotism."

Marti, 17, went to Stavangen, Norway, in June for the YMCA and YWCA's World Youth Conference. A member of Tri-Y in Marin, she was chosen one of 242 Americans among the 1,000 delegates.

After the ten day conference the Americans went on European tours, and Marti, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Werner F. Boehm, 798 Del Ganado Road, was among a group of 32 allowed to tour behind the Iron Curtain.

"It was a marvelous experience, something I'll remember all my life," said Marti, "and I'm so glad I'm an American. I came home with a feeling of super-patriotism."

The teen-agers toured extensively in East Germany, Poland and Russia, travelling by bus and train. They had more contact with young people in Poland than in other countries.

"The youth conferences they set up for us in Russia were with 35-year-old men," complained Marti.

"The kids there are still dancing swing and bop, they really started when we danced," recalled Marti. The group of teenagers evidently caused a similar stir on the beach at Kiev in Russia, "a lot of the boys wore flowered baggies, and the Russians thought they were incredible." The Americans were slightly incredulous too — "the Russians think nothing of changing right on the beach, and the enormous gross women in tiny bikinis were something else."

Marti's happiest experience was a visit to a state kindergarten in Kiev. "The children, from three to seven years old, stay there all day, only returning to their parents at 7 p.m. They were so sweet, all dressed alike in shorts. They climbed on our bus when we left and sang to us, and two little girls recited poems in English. It was so heart-warming, they gave us special pictures they'd drawn for us."

In Moscow the group stood in line to see Lenin's tomb, but not nearly as long as the Russians. "Sometimes we felt kind of bad, we always seemed to get put ahead in the lines," said Marti. This didn't apply in the trains, which were jam packed. "We soon learned that if you get a seat, you never, never get up. In Poland we saw people fighting and pulling hair to get room in the trains."

Marti found East Berlin depressing — "it's so gloomy, there's such a feeling of hopelessness." One of her most treasured souvenirs is a piece of barbed wire from the Berlin wall. A boy in the party snitched pieces with a pair of wire clippers he'd brought all the way from America for the purpose.

Forewarned, the teenagers stocked up with chewing gum and ball point pens before they left the West — "Everywhere we went in East Berlin we were pursued by kids, asking for gum, anything. And people were trying to buy our shoes, our clothes, and especially our dollars, all the time."

Marti returned from Europe this week, delayed in New York by the air strike, but still bouyed by the excitement of the trip. "Out of all the countries we visited I liked Norway the best. I think it's the most beautiful place I've ever seen, and someday I'm going to go back."

Poverty War Officials End Feud With National Office

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—San Francisco's local anti-poverty corps is free of a threat of being taken off the federal payroll, even though they only agreed "under protest" to accept rules handed down in Washington.

Daniel Luevano, regional director of the Office of Economic Opportunity, and Dr. Arthur H. Coleman, chairman of the San Francisco Economic Opportunity Council, issued a joint statement yesterday explaining the settlement.

Coleman's group had resolved not to be bound by federal regulations in their anti-poverty campaign. Luevano had responded with an ultimatum to accept the rules or have a "freeze" placed on their federal money, 90 per cent of the local budget.

Both Luevano and Coleman went to Washington to speak with Sargent Shriver, national chief of the War on Poverty program.

Coleman said San Francisco's council would accept federal rulings, but that he was sure those the local group had objected to would be changed.

Luevano said several local councils had protested against federal regulations and that "within 60 days there should be some result coming out of Washington."

San Francisco's EOC had refused to agree to abide by a directive dealing with hiring practices.

Provisions of the directive were that employees be "of good character and reputation," innocent of "recent crimes of moral turpitude" and that they be paid no more than a 20 per cent increase over their last wage.

Another provision was that anti-poverty workers may not engage in partisan political activity while on the job.

Coleman said the first of these provisions seems to "impose so-called middle class standards in low-income areas," and the second does not allow for full compensation for high potential.

Junior College Budget Up, Tax Rate Lower

The Marin Junior College District board last night adopted a $4,212,840 budget for fiscal 1967, carrying a one-half cent drop in the tax rate.

Business Mgr. Norman D. Bird estimated that the tax rate will be 77 cents per $100 assessed valuation, including the 35-cent override tax for the building program.

The budget, $713,990 higher than last year's budget, includes 20 new teachers, a new counselor, a new assistant dean and 12 new non-teaching employees.

The budget was adopted after a public hearing at which there audience consisted mainly of staff members, student, faculty and press representatives.

Trustee Elizabeth M. Deedy noted that some school trustees in the county have commented on the lack of attendance at budget hearings.

"I hope that the public would make an effort to attend board meetings during the year," she said. "I think this is the eleventh and a half hour for the public to let its feelings be known."

She suggested that residents attend earlier sessions when the budget is being prepared. She also suggested that trustees and administrators be available to meet with local groups to discuss the development and operation of the college.

Marin Junior College District Board Also:

1. Awarded Card-Key System of Burbank, Los Angeles County, a contract to install parking gates at seven campus lots and maintain them for a year at a cost of $34,028, to be repaid from parking revenue. Card-Key was lower of two bidders.
2. Awarded Ira W. Coburn Inc. of San Rafael, lowest of three bidders, a contract to contruct rest rooms at the football field at a cost of $35,812.
3. Approved plans for developing a temporary corporation yard along the railroad right-of-way adjacent to Kent Avenue, including a main building and shed at a cost estimated at $45,672.
4. Approved payment of $50 to Dr. Thomas B. Merson, research director for California Junior College Assn., who will speak at the first fall faculty meeting Sept. 10 at the College Center.
5. Announced that the Marin County Committee on School District Organization will meet at Room G-3, Physical Education complex, at the college at 7 p.m. Aug. 18, to conduct a hearing on the proposal to have a seven-member college board.
6. Approved change orders for the remodeling of the cafeteria building into a communication center at a cost of $2,895.
7. Appointed Mrs. Deedy and Theodore C. Wellman as a committee to review warrants before board meetings.
8. Adjourned to a closed session and set the next meeting for Aug. 18 at 8 p.m. at Room G-3, physical education complex.

Killer Blizzard Raging In Alps

CHAMONIX, France (UPI) — Raging snowstorms and dense clouds today shrouded 15,480-foot Mont Blanc, Europe's loftiest mountain, and stymied all rescue operations for a dozen or more climbers of various nationalities lost on its slopes.

Zero visibility prevailed around the famous peak, where at least four men—two Frenchmen and two Britons—are known to have perished this weekm Their bodies have not been brought down.

Police in this town nestling at the mountain's foot have expressed fear for the lives of three Swiss climbers missing week. Their bodies have not

License Suspended

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — The state department of Alcoholic Beverage Control has ordered a 20-day suspension of the off-sale beer and wine license of William and Florence Waters, 5605 Paradise Drive, Corte Madera, on charges of sales to minors. The suspension takes effect Aug. 18.

Computer All Thumbs Along Sewing Lines

NEW YORK (UPI) — When National Airlines decided to "pre-measure" its stewardesses for new uniforms, the air carrier combined 18 basic sizes with 22 variations of each, then fed the resulting 26,400 possibilities into a computer. The electronic tailor interpreted the statistics and reported pattern sizes to best fit the girls in each category.

Of course, if a uniform doesn't fit, it goes straight to a human tailor. Seems computers are all thumbs when it comes to needle and thread.

North Campus Master Plan Given Board

The north campus of the College of Marin is slated to open with an enrollment of 2,500 students, according to plans compiled by Planning Director James W. Duke.

"It will operate as a separate college, not as a branch," Duke told the Marin Junior College District Board last night.

He presented the board with a 21-page academic master plan indicating programs to be offered at both campuses.

Mrs. Elizabeth M. Deedy, a board member, questioned whether all programs should be duplicated at both campuses. "It has been agreed that at least certain key areas might not be duplicated," she said.

Duke said he felt that by the time the Novato campus opens, there would be enough students to justify duplication in some of the special programs. Trustees agreed to study the master plan, and Duke suggested that they could review it section by section at later meetings.

Child Cruelty Pair Put On Probation

Henry Alfred and Betty Carol Gilmore, Forest Knolls couple who pleaded guilty May 25 to child cruelty, yesterday were each placed on two years probation in Marin Municipal Court on condition that they seek psychiatric aid.

Gilmore, 24, an employee of the county public works department, and his 20-year-old wife admitted they neglected to care properly for their four children, Luana, Debbie, Carol and Henry. Sheriff's officers said an inspection of the home revealed squalor and filth, and the children were poorly fed.

An Earthy Idea

"You never throw mud without losing ground."

Trustees Balk At Helping Pay County Coordinator

An issue is a request from the county schools office to contribute $600 toward the salary of Robert Walker, coordinator of vocational and occupational education.

When the request first came before the board July 8, members postponed it until they heard from representatives of the county schools two weeks later. They postponed action again until they could get a report on what they would get for their money.

Interim President Irwin P. Diamond last night recommended that the college contribute to the work of the coordinator. Walker would gather material on vocational education programs in high schools that could be used by college personnel to tie in the college program with high school programs, he said.

Board Member Elizabeth M. Deedy said, "I'd like a contract. I want it in writing, and for the fiscal year only."

She said, "I'm not interested in continuing to underwrite another public body."

Chairman Robert E. Rogers said the county schools office hired a coordinator, "then had to go out to get contributions" to support the job.

The board asked Diamond to work up a written agreement.

Tideland Request Is Turned Down

The application of Frank M. Burke of San Anselmo to fill 97.5 acres of tideland at the mouth of Corte Madera Creek was unanimously turned down by the Bay Conservation and Development Commission yesterday in Oakland.

Joseph E. Bodovitz, executive director of the commission, recommended denial because the fill would "adversely affect" the comprehensive Bay Area plan which the commission is working on, and because the marshlands should be preserved, he said. Burke wanted to fill the land with rubbish and possibly put a golf course there.

With almost no discussion, the commission denied the application.

British Radio May Turn On Commercials

LONDON (AP) — The British government is planning to authorize a 200-station commercial radio network to replace the pirate radio stations it hopes to scuttle, informed sources said today.

The proposal, awaiting Cabinet approval, is likely to encounter opposition from some members of the ruling Labor party, which is traditionally opposed to commercial broadcasting. Britain's only legal radio is the state-chartered British Broadcasting Corp. which carries no commercials and gets its revenue from listener licenses.

A survey of about 40 colleges and universities indicates there are three bicycles for every four students.

Attack Victim Clings To Life

PINOLE (UPI) — Carre Collison, 15, under intense treatment for grave head wounds, clung to life today as police searched for the man who attacked her and killed her girl friend in a desolate area near San Pablo Bay.

Detectives, who said they were without any solid clues, waited for the attractive daughter of a high school principal to regain consciousness so that they could get a description of the sex attacker.

Police also said they have questioned a suspect in the kidnap-rape of an 18-year-old college coed Wednesday night in Pacifica. They said they were interested in the man because he lived here, a short distance from where Miss Collison and her companion, Susan Box, aslo 15, were found Wednesday.

Deadly Animals

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Ninety-five of 48,000 traffic deaths in the United States last year involved animals or animal-drawn vehicles, according to the National Automobile Club.

Workshop Sought For Juveniles

DALLAS (AP)—The head of the Dallas Crime Commission, John McKee, says the city should build a workshop to help rehabilitate the increasing number of juvenile lawbreakers no matter what it might cost.

He said juveniles account for nearly half the major crimes in Dallas, and that the number of repeat offenders shows that "our basic system in handling the problem today is wrong."

McKee said the city and county could go in together to build the prison workshop to teach juvenile offenders a trade.

COUNTRY FAIR GOLF

Members of the Women's Golf Section of the Meadow Club who entered the Ladies Invitational yesterday were greeted with country fair booths and colorful balloons. The tournament, held yesterday and today, featured "Country Fair Golf" its theme with 26 different clubs represented. Among the 64 guests attending were some from the Colusa Country Club, Los Angeles Country Club and Bermuda Dunes Club in Palm Springs.

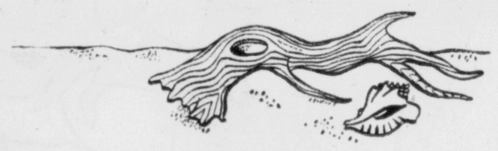
Beach Party For Debs

By MOLLY MARIN



Sixteen Marin debutantes will attend the luncheon and swimming party to be given for Anne Nicholson at the Eugene Whearys' summer home in Stinson Beach on Saturday. Anne's mother, Mrs. Joseph Nicholson of Kentfield, is cohostess with Mrs. Wheary for the event. An informal barbecue will precede the beach party and will be attended by the Whearys' daughters, Cynthia and Molly.

A ROUND-TRIP ticket to St. Louis was the birthday present Sen. Jack McCarthy of San Rafael gave his wife, Ursula, on her recent birthday. She plans to have a reunion with relatives in the Missouri city later in the summer.

THE LEONARD S. WOODS, two of Sausalito's most remarkable residents who are both just past 80, have returned from a month's 2,500-mile motor trip to Victoria, B.C.

One of the highlights of their trip, Mrs. Wood said, was attending the plays at the Shakespeare Festival in Ashland, Ore. Very much interested in dramatics, she found them exceptionally good this year.

One of the major reasons for the trip was to see the Theodore Lavers of Seattle, who formerly lived in Sausalito many years. Mrs. Laver is the sister of Mrs. Edward Many of Sausalito. The Lavers have bought five acres on the Island of Vashon off the Seattle coast, and Mr. Wood, an architect, is doing the plans for the new home they will build there.

Other former Sausalitans they visited were the Stanley Harveys, who are living in Victoria. They tried to get in touch with the Andrew Halls, formerly of Sausalito, who now live in Victoria and have a summer place at Camloops, 300 miles north of Vancouver, but were shocked to learn they had been in a very serious accident and were unable to see them.

The Woods visited with many other friends along the way, both going and returning.

Marin Professional Wives Co-Sponsor Luncheon Show

The Northgate Group of the Marin Art and Garden Center will present another in its series of summer luncheons and fashion shows at the center Wednesday with co-sponsors, the Professional Wives of Marin County.

The Professional Wives group consists of Lawyers' Wives of Marin, Women's Auxiliary to the Marin Medical Society, Women's of Marin County Dental Society, Femineers, Women's Architectural League, Northern California Chapter 1 and Women's Auxiliary to the Marin County Pharmaceutical Assn.

The series, a popular summer event in Marin, has been presented with growing success since a modest start at the same Ross locale 20 years ago.

For Wednesday's affair, general chairman for the Lawyers' Wives is Mrs. Charles L. Convis with Mrs. R. J. Grillo model chairman and Mesdames Grillo and Salvatore Bossio waitress chairmen. Mrs. Roger Garety will model for the group.

Mrs. Paul Sather is general chairman for the Medical Women's Auxiliary and Mrs. Maurice S. Salomon is in charge of the waitress. Models are Mrs. James McKnight, Mrs. Lawrence Friedman and Mrs. Charles E. Keyes.

Acting chairman for the Dental Society Auxiliary is Mrs. T. F. Pett and waitress chairman is Mrs. D. A. Wallace. Representing the Dental Auxilary in modeling will be Mrs. Lawrence LeVine and Mrs. Stanley Rutner.

Chairman for the Femineers is Mrs. Roger A. Lowe assisted by waitress chairman Mrs. Malcolm Houston with Mrs. Barry Cooke.

The Women's Architectural League will have Mrs. Joseph D. Allen as chairman and Mrs. Lyle Brown as waitress chairman. Mrs. Peter Hoyt Berg will model.

General chairman of the Pharmaceutical Assn. Women's Auxiliary is Mrs. W. R. Bacon and waitress chairman is Mrs. Robert Marrett. Model chairman is Mrs. Henry Puccinelli with Mrs. James A. Normandi and Mrs. Robert S. Abell modeling for the group.

Local Mayflower Descendants Seek To Preserve Heritage

By BETTY FROST

One of America's most exclusive organizations, the Society of Mayflower Descendants, met for tea at the Belvedere home of the San Francisco-Peninsula Colony governor, Thomas L. North on Sunday.

All members trace their lineage to the 23 male pilgrims who made the historic voyage to New England on the Mayflower in 1620, and survived the hardships of the first winter. All, except two young lads, were signers of the Mayflower Compact, first constitutional document known on this continent. Ten generations later the descendants are flourishing. The local colony has 140 members, and with seven similar colonies in California boasts a roster of 900 members. The national organization is composed of 8,000.

FRANKLIN B. HOWLAND of San Francisco is the organization's state governor, and attended the gathering in Belvedere. The local society is participating in the current drive which seeks to make Plymouth Rock a national monument. A bill introduced by Senator Edward M. Kennedy of Mass. in June, proposes setting aside 15 acres for this purpose. The colony also supports the restoration of "Plymouth Plantation", due to be completed in 1970 in celebration of the 350th aniversary of the pilgrim's arrival in the new world.

The local colony meets six times a year, with a special celebration of Mayflower Compact Day at Thanksgiving.

Mr. North feels that the descendant should encourage more eligible young people to take an active role in the genealogical society and to assist in its purposes of preserving a valued heritage.

A native of California, North was raised in Riverside. His Mayflower lineage stems from the maternal line. He is the editor and publisher of North's Financial Publications, and last year moved his place of business from San Francisco to Tiburon.

TRADITIONAL AT the society's meetings is a roll call, when the descendants rise as their ancestor's name is spoken. North laughingly admits that he is up and down quite a bit during that part of the meeting as he traces his descent from seven of the original Mayflower party. These are Dr. Samuel Fuller, Peter Brown, Francis Cook, Francis Eaton, Stephen Hopkins, James Chilton, and John Billington. "Unfortunately they hung John Billington," says Tom North.

HELEN HELP US!

By HELEN BOTTEL

Summertime Snack-Pack Attacks Neighborhood Like Locust Swarm

DEAR HELEN:

How does a mother cope? We live in a typical suburb with typical hungry kids. Actually, they're more like a big swarm of locusts.

When Jimmy and his friends walk through the kitchen, everything eatable disappears, and I think they may start on the curtains next.

I try saying "No!" but then I get, "Aw, Mom, do you want us to look like cheapskates? All the mothers feed us."

It's true: they get punch at one house; cookies at another; fruit at a third, sandwiches somewhere along the line; ice cream, candy, carrot sticks even . . . everything but a full course evening meal, which they manage to come home to, except for the times somebody stays overnight, and that's often too.

Even if budgets can stand it, I don't see how their stomachs can. Will they last until school starts? Or, more to the point, will I?

—FEEDING THE "PUNCH AND FOODY" SET

DEAR FTPAFS:

You will, and so will the kids. Actually the perpetual summer scavenger hunt provides a fairly well balanced diet, what with fruit, carrot and celery sticks, sandwiches, ice cream, etc.—and without too great expense for each family because it's spread around.

The trick, of course, is keep inexpensive snacks handy and let Jimmy know from the start what he can pass around and which food stays off limits. A neighborhood mothers' club helps stabilize the snack-pack.

H.

DEAR HELEN:

Do you approve of women going to men's apartments to listen to their records, cook dinner, etc., instead of men visiting the ladies in their apartments? —M.C.J.

DEAR M:

I can't see that it makes any difference who visits who and where. Adult females are quite adept at taking care of themselves these days; they know which man will listen to a record, which insists on making one.

. . . But one rule still holds: the ladies must be invited.

H.

DEAR HELEN:

Talk about fussy mothers, my daughter-in-law beats the batter right out of the bowl. I raised three children and I happen to know that if you don't tiptoe around, keep the house noise going and maybe even increase it a little when they take their naps, they'll learn to sleep right through it.

Dorothy says she has tried and her baby wakes up at anything, even a doorbell. I say she hasn't tried hard enough and she's spoiling him, besides making her visitors uncomfortable. Tell her, Helen.

— GRANDMA KNOWS

DEAR GRANDMA:

Sorry, you might have had a backer in me once, but no more. We had three "sleepers" and then came Suzie who waked at the sound of a car in the driveway or when the cookoo clock struck "one."

Child experts agree with me that before a mother can condition a high-trigger baby to noise, she will have lost most of her afternoon rests and the child will have outgrown his. We aren't all geared alike, Grandma.

Here's a suggestion; why don't you visit when your grandchild is awake, and let Dorothy nap along with the little nipper? — H.

DEAR HELEN:

You were so right to tell "Sad Hub" to get his overweight wife an appointment with their family doctor. My doctor gave me a sensible diet and prescribed an appetite depressant that didn't make me nervous. Beware of the fads and fancy 'pill peddlers' whose diet pills can be terribly dangerous. I repeat consult your family doctor, not a weight reducing clinic. — H. R. C.

CECILIA FAGAN

Mr. and Mrs. George Fagan of San Anselmo have announced the engagement of their daughter Cecilia to Per Helge Barsten of San Rafael.

Cecilia is the sister of Kathryn Fagan, and the granddaughter of Robert Jolly.

Mr. and Mrs. Oswald Barsten of San Rafael are the future bridegroom's parents.

A graduate of Sir Francis Drake High School, the bride-elect is employed by the Pacific Telephone Co. Per Helge was graduated from Washburn High School in Minneapolis, Minn., and attended the University of Mankato, Minn. He is now training at Lackland AFB, Tex.

No wedding date has been set.

Cheryl Coniglio Marries Stephen Hill At Novato Rite

Cheryl Marie Coniglio of Novato and Stephen Gregory Hill of Fairfax were united in marriage at Our Lady of Loretto Catholic Church in Novato on Saturday.

Rev. Allen Armstrong performed the double ring ceremony. Cheryl, the daughter of Mrs. June C. Coniglio and Charles Coniglio, was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of white crepe and Alencon lace. Nancy Pimentel was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Joyce Coniglio and Kathy Woodall, all of Novato. They wore gowns of pink crepe in empire style with burgundy colored re-embroidered lace to accent the bodice.

A garden reception was held at the bride's home. Following a wedding trip to Carmel, the newlyweds will live in Fairfax.

Cheryl is the sister of Gail Coniglio of San Francisco and Joyce and Barry Coniglio of Novato. They are the grandchildren of Mrs. Clara Tensfeldt of San Francisco.

Stephen is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hill of Mill Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert I. Evju of San Rafael have announced the engagement of their daughter, Ann, to Dennis R. Molloy, also of San Rafael.

The bride-elect is the sister of Peter Evju of San Rafael, Ensign Mark Evju of San Diego and Mrs. Lawrence J. Kline of San Anselmo. Mrs. Vivian Dietz of Berkeley is her grandmother. Ann was graduated from San Rafael High School and attended College of Marin, and is employed at Adrienne's Dress Shop in San Rafael.

Dennis, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Molloy of San Rafael, is the brother of Greg Molloy of San Rafael and Terry Molloy of New Jersey. and is employed with Montgomery Ward and Co. and Franklin Life Insurance.

A Nov. 20 wedding is planned after which the couple will reside in Novato.

ANN EVJU

White-Buerer Rite Held In Sebastopol

The father of the bride united in marriage Virginia E. Buerer and Darrel D. White in a double ring ceremony at the Hessel Union Church in Sebastopol on July 15.

The bride, the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. James D. Buerer of Novato, wore a floor-length gown of white taffeta trimmed with lace and seed pearls with a chapel train. Ruth Buerer was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Virginia Mulrane of Millbrae, Donna Whillhite of Sebastopol and Joyce Buerer. The attendants all wore matching floor-length dresses of ice blue crystalline.

Virginia Strudwick of Sonoma was flower girl and Kenneth Buerer served as ringbearer.

The bridegroom, the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Whillhite of Sebastopol, chose as his best man, Ronald Whillhite. Ushers were Clifford Gier of Orland, John Buerer of Novato and Rickie Whillhite of Sebastopol.

The newlyweds will leave in September for Portland, Ore., to continue their education at Multnomah School of the Bible.

Virginia and Darrell both were graduated from Analy High School in Sebastopol. The bride also attended Western Baptist Bible School in El Cerrito and the bridegroom attended Santa Rosa Junior College.

Virginia is the sister of Nathan Buerer of Sebastopol and Ruth, John, Steven, Joyce and Kenneth of Novato. She is the granddaughter of Mrs. Harry Buerer of La Grange, Stanislaus County, and Mrs. Ralph Finfrock of Mentone, San Bernardino County.

Darrell is the brother of Ronald, Donna and Rickie Whillhite of Sebastopol. They are the grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. Rollie Whillhite, Elsie Hurst and Myrtle Hurst all of Sebastopol.

MARIN FILM FARE

Old 007 Turns To Fine Madness

By LES DARD

NORTHGATE THEATER

Sean Connery and Joanne Woodward are featured in "A Fine Madness." This isn't Connery up to his Bondish antics again. This time he plays an eccentric poet. His eccentricities are tolerable until they start hemming in on his writing. Then his wife, Miss Woodward, hauls him to the local psychiatrist.

Finally, doctors decide that the only thing that can erase Connery's fierce individualism is an operation — a frontal lobotomy.

RAFAEL THEATER

Now showing is one of the "it couldn't happen here" comedies: "The Russians Are Coming, The Russians Are Coming," from Nathaniel Benchley's satiric novel, "The Off-Islanders." It stars Alan Arkin, Theodore Bikel, Jonathan Winters, Paul Ford, Brian Keith and Ben Blue.

A Russian submarine runs aground in New England. The captain, fearing trouble from his superiors, sends a party ashore to borrow a launch from the Yankees to tow the sub off the sand.

The hauling party starts a panic.

MOTOR MOVIES

Science-fiction is the fare here with "Around the World Under the Sea." An American nuclear submarine is sent around the world to install earthquake detectors on the floors of the seven seas. Some of the problems they encounter are fantastic natural phenomena—volcanoes, sharks, whales, etc. — and some are generated by personal friction within the ship itself.

The cast includes Lloyd Bridges, David McCallum, Shirley Eaton, Brian Kelly, Marshall Thompson, Keenan Wynn and Gary Merrill.

NOVATO THEATER

When he's called in to locate Lauren Bacall's roving husband, Harper finds himself caught up in the frantic, sinister world of the very rich and the slick underground that provides for them and preys on them.

Pamela Tiffin plays Miss Bacall's step-daughter, who is engaged to Robert Wagner, a slyly engratiating young man who meets a surprising end.

RED ALERT—Town butcher Paul Ford, with ancient sword, leads his townspeople in a counterattack on what he thinks is the first invasion force of World War III in "The Russians Are Coming" at the Rafael.

Shelley Winters is seen as a fat, boozy one-time film star.

TIBURON PLAYHOUSE

Now on screen is "The Agony and the Ecstasy," the film life of Michelangelo, complex artistic genius of 16th Century Italy.

Michelangelo is played by Charlton Heston, Pope Julius II by Rex Harrison. The film focuses on the artist's painting of the Sistine Chapel, a back-breaking job he didn't want.

The photography of Michelangelo's masterpieces in marble is beautiful.

SEQUOIA THEATER

Dick Van Dyke takes the title role in Walt Disney's hippest comedy to date: "Lt. Robin Crusoe."

A Navy pilot who sheds his burning plane in the Pacific winds up on a lovely South Sea island with no inhabitants, except a chimpanzee whose dog tags identify him as an astro-chimp.

Then into the idyllic situation strolls banished native girl Nancy Kwan and some of her sisters and cousins.

101 DRIVE-IN

Elvis Presley's latest is "Paradise Hawaiian Style."

FAIRFAX THEATER

"Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf?" Edward Albee's scathing stage success comes to the screen with Richard Burton and Elizabeth Taylor.

Burton plays a history professor married to the college president's near-alcoholic daughter. As his wife, Liz Taylor is boozy and overweight, with clothes awry and makeup smeared. Their marriage is a dying hulk.

The bare-knuckle dialogue is what keeps the film sizzling; the fateful word game is played admirably by the Burton-Taylor team, and by George Segal and Sandy Dennis—a young, optimistic couple whose path crosses theirs in the night.

LARK THEATER

TAMALPAIS THEATER

"Born Free" is the story of a lioness, based on a book by Joy Adamson, wife of a Kenya game warden, about how they adopted an orphaned lioness.

While the animal was young, it was fun. When it got to be 300 pounds, something had to be done. They decided to "untame" her, to teach her the ways of the wild, and then set her free.

Sheriff's Posse Sets Riding Competition

Competition in English and Western horseback riding classes will highlight the annual Sheriff's Posse Horse Show August 13 at Horsemen's Grounds in Novato.

According to William E. Dreusike, horse show manager and secretary of the posse, O. L. "Red" Lott of Los Altos Hills will judge the events which begin at 8:30 a.m. Trophies and ribbons will be awarded to the best horsemen in the show.

U.S. Casualties Drop In Viet Nam

SAIGON (UPI)— Ninety-nine American servicemen were killed and 534 wounded in action in Viet Nam during the week ended July 30, U.S. military spokesmen announced yesterday.

This was a drop from the previous week's casualties of 136 men dead, 578 wounded and 14 reported missing in action.

Government spokesmen reported 200 South Vietnamese soldiers were killed last week while other Allied forces lost 12 killed and 21 wounded.

A total of 1,153 Communist soldiers were killed during the same week and 89 reported captured.

Viet Cong Terror Repaid In Kind

Commandos Strike Red Villagers

By HORST FAAS
AP Photographer

MOC HOA, South Viet Nam (AP) — When the 60 raiders pulled out, the village smouldered in ruins and 40 water buffalo lay dead or dying in pools of blood.

"Someone has to do the dirty work," said an officer.

The devastation had been wrought by South Viet Nam's "skull and crossbone" commandos whose shoulder patch is the pirate flag and who repay Communist terrorism with kidnaping, assassination and scorched-earth tactics.

Created earlier this year, the force now numbers about 2,500 South Vietnamese. Most provinces have several 12-man commando teams to be used any way the province chiefs want to use them.

Like the Communists, they specialize in terror. They often kill rather than take prisoners. If they trap a Viet Cong tax collecting unit, they may kill all except one.

"One must tell the story," a commando explained. "We must spread terror. By spreading terror, we hope to counter terror.

This was their avowed purpose when they destroyed Can Den, a tiny village separated from Cambodia by a 20-foot canal in the Plain of Reeds west of Saigon. A captured Viet Cong dentist had told interrogators the area contained a primitive jungle medical school and a weapons factory.

The villagers had to pay the price of collaboration.

When the 60 raiders leaped from their helicopters, they quickly found the school and weapons center, which included a huge, hot charcoal stove to melt metal for hand grenades.

Most of the villagers ran off into Cambodia, but the commandos caught two girls near the weapons factory. The commando chief ordered them executed "as an example to all those who help the Viet Cong."

But the commander of the village's regional force unit claimed his men had captured the girls first and insisted that they be spared. They were eventually put on a helicopter for questioning in the province capital.

"The commandos should operate alone, not with us," said the regional forces captain. "The things they do are not what we do. They are unconventional. Better they do it alone."

The raiders went into every corner of the village and found a few women huddled in huts with their children. They poked rifles at the women demanding information on the whereabouts of the village men.

Every fowl and animal in sight was killed.

When 40 water buffalo lumbered up, the commandos fired several grenades into the herd. Within 15 minutes the commando leader and two men had killed or maimed every buffalo — each representing about a year's income for a Vietnamese peasant.

The commandos set every dwelling in the village on fire. A woman tried to rescue some clothing from a burning house, but a commando grabbed the bundle and threw it back into the flames.

"These people must remember that supporting the Viet Cong can do them no good," a member of the expedition said.

The daring, ruthless force has been recruited from army veterans, mercenaries and adventurers. Americans often serve in an advisory capacity, as they do with other Vietnamese units, but the Vietnamese give the orders.

Much of the commando program remains secret — even the official name has not been announced — but it is based on the old idea of an eye for an eye, a tooth for a tooth. When the Viet Cong assassinate a government village chief, there may be a murder the next night in a Viet Cong village.

In their program of terror, the Viet Cong have killed or kidnaped 2,800 government officials since January 1964, government figures show. In May alone, the government says, 115 officials were assassinated and 115 abducted.

The commandos were created to demonstrate to the Viet Cong that terrorism is a two-way street.

"If the Viet Cong think they know what destruction is," said a noncommissioned officer, "let them see what we can do."

German City Home Of Roman Emperors

AACHEN, Germany (UPI)— Charlemagne, crowned first emperor of the Holy Roman Empire in 800, chose Aachen as his residence and made it the empire's second city after Rome.

From Charlemagne's death to the accession of Ferdinand I in 1531, 32 emperors were crowned in Aachen.

Century-Old Portrait Remembers Founder

ST. LOUIS (UPI) — Ira Divoll's work will be remembered. His portrait, almost 100 years old and framed in wood with a gilt finish, is being cleaned, retouched and reframed, to hang in the new Divoll branch library.

Divoll, superintendent of schools in St. Louis from 1859 to 1867 started the system that became the city's present public library system.

Longshoremen Approve Dock Automation

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—West Coast longshoremen have approved a new contract with the Pacific Maritime Association that calls for mechanization on the docks.

The International Lonkshoremen's and Warehousemen's Union announced yesterday that by a vote of 6,488 to 3,985, the members approved the agreement which requires the employers' use of machines "whenever feasible and practical."

NEW CONTRACT

Five years ago the ILWU dropped its fight against mechanization. The new contract gives the ILWU the right to stop work on any job and call an arbitrator to decide whether loading machines should be brought in to make the task lighter.

Employers can demand arbitration to consider the elimination of any longshoreman they consider unnecessary. Employers said they saved about $200 million in operating costs under the last contract. J. Paul St. Sure, the PMA negotiator, said the new contract would give employers greater flexibility.

The contract calls for a 50 cent an hour raise for straight time retroactive to July 1 and in 1969 and 1970, each man gets another 20 cents an hour per ear. The present salary is $3.38 an hour.

WORK WEEK

The union dropped its demand for a guaranteed 35-hour week, because under the old contract longshoremen worked at least that much. Instead the contract provides that any man reporting to work should be guaranteed eight hours a day.

ILWU President Harry Bridges said under the new contract every longshoreman will be able to earn between $9,000 to $10,000 a year. West Coast dock workers have not walked off their jobs since 1948.

A new diving system enabling divers to work as long as six hours a day at depths down to 200 feet below the water's surface has been successfully tested.

Woman Charges Bias On San Francisco Job

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The City of San Francisco has been accused of discriminating against women.

Lucile Lockhart, 48, a mangement assistant with the city's nunicipal railway, charged in a lawsuit yesterday that the city' the water department the department of public health, the civil service and the public utilities commission of San Francisco have unconstitutionally discriminated against female civil service employes.

She complained specifically that she was not promoted to senior management assistant in either the water or public health departments, even though she was at the top of civil service eligibility lists.

Her complaint was discounted by Harry Albert, the city's assistant general manager of personnel. He said city regulations forbid sex discrimination in hiring. Final hiring decisions rest with the appointing officer.

However, Albert said the duties of the jobs mentioned by Miss Lockhart would not be "comfortable" for a woman.

The public health position would involve work in a veneral disease clinic and travel to neighborhoods where a woman would not be "comfortable."

The water department job required the ability to move supplies weighing up to 100 pounds and field trips into underground tunnels and vaults.

Nixon Decries Criticisms Of Viet Aims

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)— Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon denounced critics of President Johnson's Viet Nam policy today but added the administration had failed to make clear its goals.

"This criticism is now prolonging the war, encouraging the enemy and preventing the very negotiations the critics say they want," Nixon told an airport news conference after he arrived from Bangkok during a 20-day world tour.

During his trip he found "not so much opposition to our role as to the lack of information about it," he said. He added that the Johnson administration had not been successful in informing "the people at home and our friends abroad and even the enemy" on American goals in Viet Nam.

Jail Only Spurs Ozark Talents

Two teen-agers made a miniature moonshine still from such odds and ends as coffee and tobacco cans and copper tubing from their cell commode.

Mash for the whisky was made by adding water to crumbled cornbread and sugar salvaged from their meals.

Reading System Called An 'Evil'

NEW YORK (AP)—Dr. Max Rafferty, superintendent of public instruction for California, charged yesterday the progressive education system of reading is the "greatest evil ever to be inflicted upon education."

He spoke at the fifth anniversary conference of the Reading Reform Foundation.

Rafferty said the configurational, or look-and-guess, method of reading instruction was an educational restriction. One drawback, he said, was the belief of progressive educators that instruction should always be of immediate value and not be regarded as preparation for adulthood.

BIRD'S-EYE VIEW OF NEW CITY HALL

For that up-to-date, modern look, you can't beat city hall—a new one, that is. San Rafael's new million-dollar structure stands out among her older neighbors in this aerial view. The smaller wing houses the council chamber. In the larger wing are city offices on the second level. The police department occupies the lower level. The whole, handsome package is decorated with curved, copper eaves that lend a subtle grace to stark cubes. (Independent-Journal photo by Bob Hax from Commodore Helicopter)

Sausalito Stakeout Traps Young Marijuana Suspects

Sausalito Police Chief Edward S. Kreins played a game of "cat and mouse" yesterday which led to the arrest of two young men and seizure of two cellophane bags of narcotics.

It was the third arrest in two days of Marin teen-agers on marijuana charges. Larkspur Police Chief Howard Clark reported that his men picked up a 16-year-old youth Wednesday after his mother allowed Clark to search her son's room.

Placed in county jail on charges of possession was Alfred Gales Grinsell, 18, of 34 Filbert Street, Sausalito. Placed in juvenile hall on the same charge was a 15-year-old Mill Valley boy.

Kreins said a 14-year-old Sausalito boy came to the police at about 4 p.m. yesterday with a cellophane bag containing some white powdery material. He said he had been walking along Bulkley Avenue when he saw a "beatnik-type" man place some articles in leaves near the sidewalk.

FOUND CACHE

The man left and the boy checked the leaves to find the cellophane bag. He took the packet to the police.

Kreins and the boy went to the area. En route, they observed Grinsell and the 15-year-old. Grinsell was identified by the boy as the person who had hidden the bag.

Kreins dropped the boy off and returned to the area, about 50 feet from the leaf hiding place. He said he witnessed Grinsell and the 15-year-old searching in the leaves, then reacting in bewilderment when they could not find what they were seeking. Kreins placed Grinsell under arrest. While searching Grinsell, the 15-year-old tossed a package over the bank. He was then arrested, too. The chief said he returned later and found the package which contained about one half cup of what appeared to be ground marijuana.

BAG'S CONTENTS

The first packet, said Kreins, cotained two lage bundles and one small bundle of white powder, believed to be a narcotic. This has been sent to the state narcotics bureau in San Francisco for analysis.

The Larkspur arrest came about after the youth's mother had a change of heart and dropped her earlier refusal to let Clark search the boy's room.

In the room, Chief Clark said, he found two marijuana cigarettes, a "good quanitiy" of loose marijuana and some white powder which is now being analyzed.

Clark said his men suspected for some time that the youth was "in" with a group of Redwood High School students who were using the drug during the past school year.

Larkspur police had gone to the boy's mother with their suspicions, he said, but she refused to believe them. According to Chief Clark, she changed her mind Wednesday and allowed the search. The boy refused to say where he purchased the marijuana, Clark said.

Marin To Get $13,200 In Apportionment

Marin County will receive a $13,200 apportionment from the state of California during the next six months for support of children's centers around the county, it was disclosed yesterday by the state department of education.

The state apportioned a total of $3.5 million for the child centers in various districts in California as well as $168,200 to eight districts in the state for development centers for handicapped minors.

Tomales School Adopts Budget, Tax Rate Same

The Tomales High School District Board last night adopted a $292,677 budget for fiscal 1967 which calls for a total tax rate of $1.45 per $100 assessed valuation.

The tax rate is the same as last year, according to Supt. Anthony Matulich.

The board set Aug. 19, 25 and 26 to tour various schools in the area, designed by several architects. It will then interview these architects at 7:30 p.m. Aug. 30 and Sept. 1 will select one for the district.

The board adopted a resolution asking the College of Marin to conduct a course on the new mathematics in an adult evening school. This resolution backed up one made Monday by the Tomales Elementary School District Board.

SHAKY GOLFER SPRAYS SCHOOL WITH SHOTS

A golfer who is obviously not ready to test his skills on the narrow confines of a fairway has plagued Larkspur Corte Madera School in Larkspur with $21 worth of broken windows during the last week.

The school's principal, Gilbert Slusher, told Larkspur police yesterday that someone broke a window at the school last night, then broke two more Wednesday night.

In each case, he said, a golf ball was found in the classroom with the broken window.

First It's Tree House, Now Cave House Blaze

In Sausalito, if it isn't fires in tree houses, it's fires in caves.

Police ordered a tree house torn down July 21 at 99 Miller Lane after it was found that nomadic beats were camped in a child's tree house, keeping warm by burning leaves in a Mason jar.

Yesterday, a passerby noticed smoke pouring from under a carport of Earl W. Purves at 2 Alexander Avenue at the south entrance to the city. Donning masks to get through smoke and entering through a small crawl hole, firemen foud a fire in a mattress in a cave under the cantilevered street.

Also in the hideout, over which thousands of residents and tourists pass daily, were several hurricane lanterns, some rugs, soft drink cans and candy wrappers.

Reverberation of cars rolling above the cave apparently shook loose a lighted lantern on the ceiling. It landed on the mattress and set it aflame, Fire Chief Charles E. Matsen said today. The gear was dragged out of the cave, which is about four feet high, 15 by 20 feet in area and bolstered by concrete pilings which hold up the street. Shovels and saws also were found inside.

Masten said he plans to recommend to the city council that steps be taken to seal off the cave entrance which had apparently been dug out by youngsters. "We would have a heck of a time getting someout out if something happened in there," he said.

Signs Falling For New Law In Mill Valley

One rooftop sign has been taken down and several real estate company "for sale" signs have been removed to comply with Mill Valley's new sign ordinance which went into effect yesterday.

The rooftop sign at Montgomery Ward and Co., Miller and Sunnyside avenues, has been taken down, City Planning Director Harvey E. Bragdon said today. "Another man has indicated he will take his rooftop sign down and replace it with a conforming sign," added Bragdon.

He remarked that he has noticed that several "for sale" signs have disappeared. "I am not sure whether the property was sold or not," Bragdon reported.

Letters were being sent out today and will be sent early next week requesting 30 rooftop sign owners to remove such signs seven days after the date of the letter. Similar letters are being sent to persons who have "for sale" signs posted.

Parking Meters Tampered With

Fifty-two of Mill Valley's 289 parking meters were either jammed, tampered with or emptied over last week end, police reported today.

Sixteen were jammed with beer can or soft drink snaptops. Thirty-two had ice cream sticks or other objects jammed into the coin slots. Three had been completely emptied of change at the municipal parking lot near the bus depot.

Meterman Colin Menzies said he believes the vandalism was the work of children. It was unknown how the three meters might have been emptied since Menzies is the only person who has a meter key.

Revised Tax Rate Estimate May Help Marin Taxpayers

Marin County taxpayers will benefit by half a cent as a result of a revised estimate of the fiscal 1967 tax rate issued today by Auditor-Controller Michael Mitchell.

In the same breath, however, Mitchell warned that the threat of less government money coming into the county may put that half cent right back on to the rate again.

"If federal and state reimbursements applicable to the Medicare program are less than originally anticipated, this and the possible loss of other revenues may call for readjustments of the tax rate upwards," he said.

On Tuesday, County Administrator Alan Bruce told the board of supervisors he could not be "overly optimistic" about the state of reserves and added the effect of Medicare on the county had not been determined.

The revised tax rate is $2.23 per $100 assessed valuation instead of the $2.235 predicted by Mitchell a month ago.

Equalization hearings which finished Tuesday reduced the assessed value roll by $892,350. This was only $7,650 short of the $900,000 Mitchell had allowed for adjustments when he made his earlier prediction.

"This is the closest I think we have ever come to the predicted figure for adjustments, he said.

This $7,650 "windfall," plus an increase in the unsecured valuation levied by County Assessor Bert W. Broemmel produced the reduction of half a cent, said Mitchell.

The county's overall assessment valuation now totals $482,029,680, an increase of 12.2 per cent over the current fiscal year's figure of $428,466,950.

Breakdown of the revised assess valuation is as follows: secured assessed valuation $425,172,560; public utilities $33,492,460; and unsecured valuation $23,362,666.

The final tax rate is expected to be set by the county board of supervisors Aug. 30.

School Fails To Adopt Budget

Larkspur School District Board failed to adopt a budget for fiscal 1967 last night because it lacked a quorum.

District Business Mgr. Gilbert Slusher reported that board member Curtis P. Kamai was training with his army reserve unit, while John R. Cunningham and Howard C. Harvey were both called out of town suddenly on business.

The meeting has been rescheduled, he said, for Sunday at 7 p.m. in the district office.

Library Board Picks Chairman, New Officers

Mrs. Benjamin Dreyfus last night was elected chairman of the Mill Valley Library Board of Trustees.

Paul G. Fourman was re-elected secretary-treasurer.

The board changed the date of the dedication ceremony for the new library from Sept. 25 to Sept. 18, because Carma R. Leigh, state librarian, and architect Donn Emmons could not attend on the later date.

In other action, the board agreed to ask the city to install burglar alarms on the new library. The redwood and glass building needs alarms, Mrs. Dreyfus said, because it is more vulnerable and isolated than the old library.

The old library closed yesterday. The new one will open at 10 a.m. Aug. 22.

REPORT on YOUTH IN THE NEWS

- Does the Independent-Journal publish more "bad" than "good" stories about young people?
- Do young people create more "unfavorable" than "favorable" news today?

I-J stories judged 'favorable' to youth outnumbered 'unfavorable' stories by better than 3 to 1 – Month of June, 1966

based on a survey of the recent I-J "Youth-in-the-News" Contest

Recently, the I-J conducted a "YOUTH-IN-THE-NEWS" CONTEST. The object was to estimate the number of stories "favorable" to youth which the I-J would publish during the full month of June. In evaluating the stories, those regarded as "unfavorable" were also marked and tabulated. This report publishes the full findings for all to read . . . and offers some conclusions based upon the facts of the survey.

A panel of consultants, well-known in the field of education, reviewed the evaluation of each story in each issue of the I-J published during June, 1966. These findings are published with the consent and concurrence of the panel members.

ALL STORIES WERE REVIEWED BY THIS PANEL OF CONSULTANTS

The news stories and the method of evaluation were reviewed and analyzed by the panel. Final determination of what constituted a "favorable" or "unfavorable" story resided with the consultants, with every attempt made to apply fair and reasonable interpretations to all stories. The panelists:

- VIRGIL S. HOLLIS, Marin County Superintendent of Schools
- PAUL MILLER, Instructor in Journalism, College of Marin
- EDWARD J. NEUMEIER, Coordinator of Public Information, Tamalpais Union High School District
- MRS. LILLIAN SEAVER, Lecturer in Journalism, English Dept., Dominican College

I-J MARKED COPIES "OPEN FOR INSPECTION"

Copies of the daily issues for the month of June, showing evaluations of stories, are available to everyone for examination. Newsroom - main office.

THE FINDINGS: 258 stories judged favorable to youth were published by the I-J during June, 1966. A total of 77 stories appeared which were judged "unfavorable" to young people. The preponderance of "good" stories then, was in the ratio of better than 3 to 1 over those stories considered "bad."

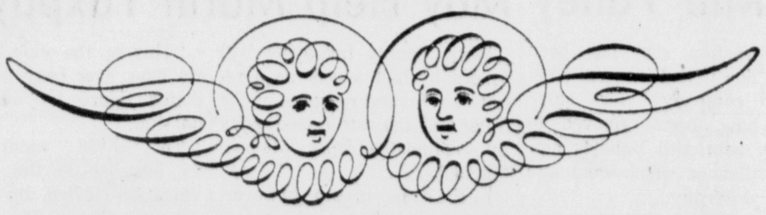
SIGNIFICANCE: It is easy to say that a newspaper prints more news "unfavorable" to young people than "favorable." And the Independent-Journal has not been immune from such criticism. The findings, however, are objective. These are the facts of exactly what happened during the month of June—typical of any month.

Naturally, we are delighted that the trend ran so heavily in favor of "good" stories vs. "bad," although it doesn't surprise us.

The real significance, however, is in this: neither the I-J nor any other newspaper creates the news; it only reports it. Young people make their own news through their own activities. And since young people created so many "favorable" news stories, this leads to a pleasant and significant conclusion: that today's young people need little or no defense. Their actions speak for themselves—and better than their critics!

Whether you are a teenager or an adult, the findings should help you in YOUR evaluation of the news . . . and of your newspaper. When you read a story in the I-J on delinquency (as you will), can you still allow yourself to "see" the story about a youngster winning a scholarship? Can You take the broad spectrum of the news and place it in perspective rather than seeing youth through the small end of the telescope? And can you see the role of your newspaper as a lens which must show the news, without any pre-setting of the focus?

As you read about young people, remember that the news plays no favorites. If it "favors" young people (as it does in the I-J), then look to the source: the youngsters themselves. That's where we look . . . and the view is fine.



Statement from a member of the panel

One of the prevailing myths about newspapers seems to be that they go out of their way to print derogatory news about young people.

Having worked a number of years in both journalism and education I've been aware that such an impression is just that—a myth. The Independent-Journal's Youth in the News Contest is a reliable indicator of the fallacy.

Unfortunately most newspaper readers don't see the paper as a whole. Too often, as well, a reader gets a stronger impression from something with which he is emotionally involved. Those who care about youth, including youth itself, often react strongly to what seems critical and passively to what is positive.

This exposition of a sampling in the I-J attempts to put forth the whole picture and dispel the myth.

Coordinator of Public Information, Tamalpais Union School District

Here's Why
You win either way
If you buy now
at
PETALUMA GARDENS
1. Your new home will be ready for Back-to-school.
2. If interest rates advance, you are obviously better off to buy now.
3. If interest rates decline, you can refinance.
4. But building costs keep advancing, so regardless of interest rates, you save if you buy now.

NOTICE OF TRUSTEE'S SALE

On Friday, the 26th day of August 1966, at the hour of 11:00 o'clock a.m., in the lobby inside the Lincoln Avenue entrance to the Title Insurance and Trust Company, being the building located at the Northeast corner of Lincoln Avenue and Mission Street, in the City of San Rafael, County of Marin, State of California, TITLE INSURANCE AND TRUST COMPANY, a corporation, as trustee, will sell at public auction, to the highest bidder, for cash, in lawful money of the United States, all payable at the time of sale, the following described real property, situated in the County of Marin, State of California, and described as follows, to-wit:

PARCEL ONE:

PARCEL TWO:
A private exclusive easement for private boat docking, storage and anchorage purposes over that portion of that certain 20-foot private boat docking, storage and anchorage easement lying within the prolongation of the lot side lines of parcel one above described and lying within lot 168, as shown on that certain map entitled, "Map of Bel-Marin Keys, Unit 2, in the County of Marin, California," filed July 27, 1964 in Book 12 of Maps at page 87, Marin County Records.

Said sale will be made, without covenant or warranty regarding title, possession or encumbrances, to satisfy the obligations secured by and pursuant to the power of sale conferred in a certain deed of trust executed by ARTHUR A. TOMBAUGH AND MARIANNE M. TOMBAUGH, his wife, as trustor, to TITLE INSURANCE AND TRUST COMPANY, a California corporation, as trustee, for the benefit and security of THE EQUITABLE LIFE ASSURANCE SOCIETY OF THE UNITED STATES, a corporation, dated January 3, 1966 and recorded January 5, 1966 in the office of the Recorder of the County of Marin, State of California, in Book 2014 of Official Records, page 130.

RESOLUTION NO. 9003

RESOLUTION OF THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF THE MARIN COUNTY FLOOD CONTROL AND WATER CONSERVATION DISTRICT SPECIFYING ITS INTENTION TO UNDERTAKE A REVISED PROJECT FOR FLOOD CONTROL ZONE NO 9 - ROSS VALLEY AND SPECIFYING THE COSTS TO BE BORNE BY THE ZONE

WHEREAS, this Board of Supervisors has heretofore established Marin County Flood Control Zone No. 9, being a portion of the Marin County Flood Control and Water Conservation District; and

WHEREAS, this Board has heretofore determined to undertake a project comprising the construction and improvement of Corte Madera Creek as specified in Resolution No. 8793, adopted January 11, 1966, as revised by Resolution No. 8834; and

WHEREAS, the amount of the cost of said project to be borne by the Zone could not then be ascertained and said project, as revised, was adopted subject to the condition that a supplemental hearing would be conducted prior to the imposition of said costs upon the Zone; and

WHEREAS, the project as revised is necessary and useful in carrying out the purposes of the Marin County Flood Control and Water Conservation District Act; and

WHEREAS, this Board has received an engineering estimate of the cost of the first phase of said project as revised and expanded, and an estimate of the costs to be borne by the Zone;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED as follows:

1. This Board hereby specifies its intention to undertake a revised zone project for and on behalf of Flood Control Zone No. 9, which said project consists of the construction and improvement of the Corte Madera Creek Flood Control Channel within said Flood Control Zone No. 9 for the purposes hereinabove set forth.

2. It is hereby determined that said project, as revised, should be carried out, for the benefit of a single zone, to wit: Flood Control Zone No. 9, and that the cost thereof, other than reimbursable costs, shall be borne by said Flood Control Zone No. 9.

3. That certain map, dated March 8, 1966, and prepared by the Marin County Department of Public Works, which is on file with this Board of Supervisors, is hereby readopted as a map showing the general location and general construction of said revised project. The engineering estimate of the cost of first phase of said revised project is $925,000. The portion of cost thereof to be borne by the Zone in fiscal year 1966-67 is estimated to be $31,000.

4. The 16th day of August, 1966, at 3:00 o'clock P.M. of said day, at the Supervisors' Chambers at the Civic Center, San Rafael, California, are hereby fixed as the time and place for a public hearing on this resolution and particularly the imposition of costs upon said Zone.

5. Notice of said hearing shall be given by publication of the within resolution pursuant to Section 6066 of the Government Code, to wit: Publication once a week for two weeks with at least five days intervening between the respective publication dates, not counting such publication dates, in the Independent-Journal, a newspaper of general circulation in said Flood Control Zone.

6. The Corte Madera Town Hall is hereby designated as the public place in said Flood Control Zone No. 9 where a copy of the aforementioned map of said project, as revised, may be seen by an interested person, and the Clerk of the Board is hereby directed to post a copy of said map and this resolution in said above designated public place at least two weeks prior to the time fixed for said hearing.

PASSED AND ADOPTED at a regular meeting of the Board of Supervisors of the Marin County Flood Control and Water Conservation District held on the 19th day of July, 1966, by the following vote, to wit:

AYES: SUPERVISORS William A. Gnoss, Peter H. Behr, Thomas T. Storer, Ernest N. Kettenhofen, Byron W. Lydecker

Engineers Sue Over Deafness From Accident

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—Two engineers have filed suit for $1 million damages, saying that their hearing was impaired by a high-pitched whine from a valve they were repairing at a nuclear rocket engine test cell.

Richard Short, 45, and Max J. Hansen, 43, employed at the Nuclear Rocket Development Station, 85 miles northwest of here, named the government and four government contractors in their federal court suit yesterday.

The men said the valve failed at the test cell in August, 1964, and all personnel from the area were ordered to begin repair work.

The engineers charge in the suit that the defendants failed to exercise adequate safety controls to prevent the hearing impairment.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

VAN DELLEN

Typhoid Mary was born 65 years too early. This celebrated disease carrier would have given a fortune (which she did not have) for ampicillin, an antibiotic that would have cured and stopped authorities from hounding her day and night. Physicians at Stanford University school of medicine reported curing typhoid carriers with the antibiotic alone.

The causative organisms are usually eliminated from the intestine after an attack of typhoid fever. They persist in the gallbladder of those destined to become carriers and the eradication of the disease depends upon the elimination of the causative bacilli. Satisfactory results were achieved in some by administering antibiotics and removing the organ.

The operation was deemed necessary because of the microbes lodged deep in gallstones and liver tissue. At any rate, the plan was not always successful and, in 1962, we still had 3,600 chronic typhoid carriers in the United States. Oddly enough, chloramphenicol, the antibiotic that was so effective in the acute phase of the disease, was a failure in the treatment of carriers.

ACCORDING TO DOCTORS Harold J. Simon and Raymond G. Miller, 13 of 15 carriers treated with large doses of ampicillin over a period of four weeks responded favorably. They still have their gallbladders and many physicians would give their eye teeth to know whether a few causative organisms remain in their gallstones.

The life of a chronic carrier is not pleasant. They are examined periodically by the health department and feel like social outcasts. Their choice of occupation is limited and they shun normal social activity.

MARY MALLON was a cook who was chased from one job to another as members of each succeeding household contracted typhid. She was said to be responsible for 51 cases and was even blamed for the Ithaca epidemic which involved 1,300.

(Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.)

COLD SORE ORIGINS

D. R. writes: You recently had a question on whether drinking beer and using ultraviolet light could cause herpes. I have found that drinking as little as 12 ounces of beer gives be cold sores, and my wife invariably develops them if she gets a dose of sunburn.

REPLY

These are only two of the many origins of these lesions. But it is unusual for both husband and wife to be afflicted with the same condition from different causes.

PROSTATE AND MENTAL ILLNESS

A reader writes: Is there any possibility that prostate gland trouble could cause a mental illness?

REPLY

Indirectly, provided the ailment has created unusual anxiety or frustration. Disorders of the gland itself are not a cause of mental illness.

RESISTANCE TO COLDS

D. A. writes: Will taking fish liver oils in the winter build up resistance aginst colds?

REPLY

BEER AND URIC ACID

M. D. A. writes: Can beer drinking cause increase of uric acid in the blood?

REPLY

No, but veterans of gout will admit that overindulgence brings on attacks. It is better, therefore, to avoid all drinks of this nature.

Television Equipment Taken From Home

Burglars took $210 worth of television and radio equipment from the Thomas M. Hart home on West Upper Road, Ross, between 1:30 and 5:15 p.m. yesterday.

Mrs. Hart told police she returned home to find a lower floor window had been forced and a new television set, a record player and speaker and a stereo set were missing. Nothing else in the house was disturbed.

Traffic, Trash Are Discussed In East Bay

Members of the Sleepy Hollow Homes Assn. discussed traffic and trash dumping problems at a board meeting yesterday at 8 p.m.

The association requested Harry D. Lang, chairman of its road committee, to investigate the possibility of placing chains across fire roads and posting problem areas against auto access and dumping.

Maybe we'll have to put a new speedometer on our new I-J press. It's now revving up to 42,000 (copies) . . . and still accelerating! For more and more readers are deciding that THEY want to be in high gear with the times and with Marin County. Perhaps it's because we've added so many new features. Could be our emphasis on JOURNALISM instead of sensationalism. Or the way we upholster your mind with complete information. Whatever it is, reader traffic in the I-J is spurting ahead . . . with the green lights of today's news.

ALMANAC

The moon is between its full phase and last quarter; the morning stars are Mars, Venus, Jupiter and Saturn; There are no evening stars.

French novelist Guy de Maupassant was born on this day in 1860.

On this day in history:

In 1964, Premier Tshombe of the Congo tried to form a coalition government. He failed.

A thought for the day—Ernest Hemingway said: "The first and most important thing of all, at least for writers today, is to strip language clean, to lay it bare down to the bone."

TIME AND TIDE

Department of Commerce, United States Coast Geodetic Survey, Western District headquarters. Times and heights of tides at San Francisco (Golden Gate):

HOW TO PLAY

WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

If You Play By Rules, Better Have An Unabridged Rulebook

According to the latest statistics, a bridge player makes a disastrous mistake every 15 seconds.

With your luck, that player will be your partner.

Strangely enough, some of the worst disasters take place when a player thinks he is following the "rules" for good play.

Opening lead — ◇ Q

He then led the queen of spades from dummy for a ruffing finesse.

"Cover an honor with an honor," East muttered as he played the king of spades.

South delightedly ruffed the king of spades, drew the last trump, and got to dummy with a club to discard three losers on the rest of the good spades.

Game, slam and rubber were very satisfactory to North and South.

DIDN'T KNOW

East didn't know the full rule: Cover an honor with an honor only if this will set up a trick for you or for your partner.

In this case South had gone to the trouble of cashing the ace of spades before leading the queen of spades from dummy.

Obviously South was out of spades and East could not possibly set up a defensive trick by covering with the king.

West leads a diamond to the king, defeating the contract, and the defenders eventually get a club trick to collect an additional hundred points.

DAILY QUESTION

Partner opens with two hearts (forcing to game), and the next player passes.

You hold:
♠ Q J 10 9 6
♥ 10 2
♣ A 6 5 3.

What do you say?

ANSWER: Bid two notrump.

The hand is not quite worth a positive response.

It would be correct to bid two spades if the queen of spades were changed to the king or if you had three hearts and one diamond instead of a doubleton in each red suit.

Talking, Indeed!

FREEPORT, N.Y. (AP) — This Long Island village of some 40,000 has rejected a million-dollar federal grant. The grant, from the Federal Office of Economic Opportunity, was to finance an experimental "talking typewriter" program to teach reading, arithmetic and other subjects. Turned down by Freeport's School Board, it was taken by New York City.

Pleads Innocent To Spy Charges

WASHINGTON (AP) — A retired Army lieutenant colonel once assigned to the office of the Joint Chiefs of Staff has pleaded innocent to charges that he conspired to sell U.S. military secrets to the Soviet Union.

A federal judge set the trial of William Henry Whelan, Alexandria, Va., for Dec. 19 and gave defense attorneys until Sept. 20 to file pretrial motions.

A federal grand jury indictment accused Whelan of receiving $5,500 from two former Soviet Embassy officials as part of a conspiracy to give them information about atomic weaponry, missiles, troop movements and other data.

Volcano Spews More Destruction

MANILA (AP) — Clouds of smoke and ash from Taal volcano settled on villages around Lake Taal today, forcing schools to close and more villagers to flee.

The volcano, now in its second month of eruption, hurled clouds of smoke and ash 9,000 feet in the air.

More than 10,000 people have been evacuated from villages on the lake shore, and thousands more are on 10-minute standby alert.

The Orinoco, with its innumerable tributaries, has a drainage areas of several hundred thousand square miles.

TELEVISION REVIEW

Listen! The Stars More Than Twinkle

By ROBERT MUSEL

NEW YORK (UPI) —It all seems so plausible and inevitable in the pages of science fiction, the confrontation between earth men and intelligent beings from other stars.

But never the twain shall meet, according to a documentary "We Are Not Alone" now being completed by Stephen Fleischman who has a string of distinguished public interest programs to his credit at ABC-TV.

After research on both sides of the Iron Curtain Fleischman has found firm agreement among top scientists that there is probably intelligent life, and almost certainly biological life, on some of the billions of stars in our galaxy.

"But the trouble is," said the award-winning producer, "they all seem to think that the most logical place to look for intelligent life is on stars some 1000 light years from us—meaning it takes light 1000 years to get there travelling at 187,000 miles a second.

"Space ships of course, can't travel that fast and would take many times longer. No living thing could possibly survive the trip. Even radio messages would journey a thousand years. You can't have dialogue with thousand year gaps between questions and answers."

Fleischman said there was one positive step we might be able to take if we ever make contact with a space civilization.

"We could send them television pictures of what we do and how we live. And they could send us similar pictorial information. The signals would have to travel so far the events they showed would be a thousand or more years old by the time they arrived, but that's better than nothing."

Fleischman's hour long program, scheduled for broadcast Oct. 21 with a repeat Nov. 6, is in effect, an interim report on the scientific search for extra-terrestrial life. Part film, part animation, part interviews with famous scientists. It dismisses flying saucers as of small importance to the subject at least until a saucer lands and its occupants explain themselves.

"Scientists are skeptical about UFO's (unidentified flying objects)," the producer said.

Fleischman is showing all the tools and techniques used in the search for space life from the laboratory the U. S. expects to land on Mars in the next decade with its microscopes designed to detect even bacterial life to the radio telescope at Arecibo in Puerto Rico listening to the sounds of space with its vast "ear" 1000 feet across.

"We are in the process of negotiating now with the Russians who have proposed an international commission to listen in to distant stars." Fleischman said "one problem is that there are 10,000 stars in the area scientists think it most likely there is life and we would have to listen to them all individually.

"It's a 20-year project even with automated equipment doing the job. There is also talk of a radio telescope around the equator which would scan the heavens as the earth rotates."

Fleischman stressed that the title of the documentary "We Are Not Alone" is a statement.

"There is no question mark after it," he said.

Gases Combined To Make Solids

NEW YORK (UPI) — Hydrogen chloride gas and acetylene gas don't sound like materials you can walk on.

But the nation's leading vinyl title producer Goodyear puts the two together to form vinyl chloride which in turn is converted to vinyl resin and four manufacturing steps later, to vinyl floor covering.

MYSTERY OF THE WEEK

Wha' Hoppen To Juan?

CHICAGO (AP) — The San Francisco Giants were in Chicago today for an affair with the Cubs, but most of them were still scratching their heads and asking, "What happened to Juan Marichal?"

Marichal completely dominated yesterday's game against New York for seven innings. Going into the eighth, he had a 6-1 lead, but he left the game in the ninth with a slim 6-5 lead and the Mets eventually won 8-6 on Ron Swoboda's pinch hit, three-run homer.

Marichal completed 5 2-3 innings before allowing a Mets' hit. Then pitcher Dennis Ribant punched a single through the middle. So what? The score was 3-0 and Marichal seemed strong.

In the seventh inning, tears streamed down Marichal's face as dust from the mound swirled in his eyes when he made his follow through. He asked that the mound be watered down. Three singles and Marichal's overthrown ball to first base allowed one Mets runner to tally. But still at inning's end it was 5-1 and the Giants seemed unconcerned.

John Stephenson's two-run homer and Larry Elliott's run-scoring single in the eighth narrowed the Giants' lead to 6-4. Ken Boyer's leadoff homer in the ninth drove Marichal from the mound.

What happened to Marichal? The Giants, who dropped out of first place when Pittsburgh defeated Los Angeles, weren't saying. Swoboda wasn't feeling sorry though. The 22-year-old outfielder said:

"When I went to the plate, I just wanted to hit the ball up the middle. . . When I hit the ball, though, I knew it was gone. I thought, 'We did it. We beat 'em.'"

Swobody's homer came off relief pitcher Bill Henry, who replaced Marichal's substitute, Lindy McDaniel. McDaniel gave up two singles and got only one out. Only two weeks ago, Swoboda rocked Henry for a 10th-inning homer that lifted the Mets over the Giants 3-2 in San Francisco.

Marichal (17-4) was going for his 17th career victory over the Mets who have never defeated him. McDaniel was charged with yesterday's loss.

All-Stars Challenge The Mighty Packers

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN

CHICAGO (AP) — More than $4 million worth of pro football rookies — known as the College All-Star squad — try to prove they can prospect for more than gilt-edge contracts tonight against the Green Bay Packers.

The game in Soldier Field, 33rd in the All-Star series sponsored by Chicago Tribune Charities Inc., will be unique because of the dollar value involved.

The 46 collegians already have signed pro pacts, some at fantastic amounts in a battle of dollars now apparently ended with the merger of the National Football League and the American Football League.

"This squad is the last of the big spenders," jokes All-Star Coach John Sauer. "But seriously, these boys came to play and if they lose it won't be from lack of effort."

The classic, which has the NFL champions holding a 21-9-2 edge, will be televised by ABC starting at 7 p.m., PDT, with a record 210-station outlet. A crowd of about 65,000 is expected to watch in perfect weather in the huge lakefront arena.

The NFL champion Packers rate a 13 to 15 points favorite. Both squads are without injury, and are at an early peak physically and mentally.

The last All-Star victory was

What Coaches Say And What They Really Mean

IT WON'T be long now. In a few short weeks, the warm, dulcet tones of "Hit 'im again! Harder!" will waft on afternoon air. Mayhem at midfield will be the order of the day and it is time once again to play our annual game of "Defense The Coach" which is a free public service we offer to our subscribers.

On the left is what the coach will say. On the right (and in parentheses) is what he will mean—when he, so to speak, goes on inaudibles.

"WE HAVE to guard against over-confidence."—("I'll say! To a man, our guys are confident Green Bay will slaughter them.")

"Injuries killed us."—("Because we didn't have enough of them. I was so anxious to get the first-string backfield out of there I did everything but poison the food but this crowd is so careful not to bump into anything on the field you'd think they were hemophiliacs. The only thing the trainer treats is hangovers.")

"HE'S THE most improved player in our league."—("Now, he's merely terrible.")

"I look for our quarterback to take his place among the top scorers."—("Yeah! Two points at a time. He's the first quarterback in the history of the game to be minus-60. He makes our team's All-Opponent team each year. He'll have to have a sensational year to end his career at zero. He doesn't play a football, he hoards it. You ask him to pass the ketchup and he goes to one knee.")

"YOU'LL HEAR some hitting out there today!"—("Right! And most of it will be from our guys on the back of their pants. There isn't a one of them has so much as a grass stain on the FRONT of the uniform.")

"Our gang plays a clean game."—("They brush their teeth before hitting anybody.")

"ALL THIS club needs is one more good running back."—("And that'll make a total of one.")

"We won't miss our fullback. We're no one-man team."—("That's true enough. Without him, we're a no-man team.")

"He has all the moves."—("He couldn't get out of the way of a glacier. The only thing he has going for him is bad breath. There are some linebackers in the league who wouldn't tackle him unless they had a bad cold. Otherwise, they'd rather tackle a three-week-old crate of eggs.")

"OUR PASS receivers will benefit from a year's experience."—("Yeah! Now they'll have sense enough to look around for another line of work. They're so slow you could mail the football to them. They're so clumsy somebody would have to open it for them.")

"Our defensive secondary has learned to work as a unit."—("They're so weak at everything over their heads they have to put each others' helmets on. They couldn't intercept a pass with flack. They're so short they have to reach up to bat down a fumble and it's been so long since they've been close enough to identify a football they believe in flying saucers.")

"WE HAVE to learn to hang onto that football."—("We have to learn to get it first. In the Green Bay game, the fans sitting behind our end zone got their hands on the ball more than we did.")

"We will move the ball on anybody."—("Unfortunately, toward our goal line.")

"There is not one single reason this team couldn't win the championship."—("I know. There are 11 of them.")

Early Bird Will Televise Battle

LONDON (AP) — Champion Cassius Clay taunted Britain's challenger, Brian London, today on the eve of their world heavyweight championship fight tomorrow.

"Put your wife and children in the ringside," the 24-year-old champ from Louisville advised the 32-year-old English challenger. "Remember that you're fighting for them. Then, if you hit the champ and he don't fall, run."

The modest London, who like Clay has finished training for the scheduled 15-rounder, retorted: "I don't take much notice of what Clay says.

"It's going to be a tough, hard fight. I feel fit. I have everything to gain and nothing to lose. My ambition is to make as much money for my wife and children as I can. I am always a trier."

London, noted for strength rather than finesse, said he aims for a knockout. He admits he's unlikely to outpoint the fleet-footed champion.

"I'm going to have a good bash," he said.

The manner in which Clay has been training indicates he's planning a similar fate for the Briton.

Clay hasn't done much sparring — only 26 rounds — but he's devoted a lot of time to punishing the heavy bag, hitting it with a venom he's rarely displayed before.

Throughout his training sessions Clay has worn an indolent air for the newsmen, moaning that old age is catching up with him and that a champion carries a big burden on his back.

But at a trim 205 pounds his sharp appearance tends to belie it all.

London, who will weigh in at around 198 pounds, looks stronger and fitter than when he failed to take the world title from Floyd Patterson at Indianapolis in 1959.

The Briton sets out for London today from his training camp in Blackpool, northern England, accompanied by his wife, his brother, his doctor—and a 16-year-old horseshoe.

London planned to travel by helicopter but promoter Jack Solomons ruled that out so he will go by train.

Clay, who has been training at a north London gym, only has to cross town to the 18,000-capacity Earls Court indoor stadium for the fight, which looks like it will be a sellout.

The gross receipts is expected to be about 180,000 pounds ($504,000).

Twenty closed circuit TV theaters in Britain could bring in an additional 110,000 pounds ($336,000).

The fight will be carried live on TV to the United States via the Early Bird satellite on ABC's Wide World of Sports at 2 p.m., PDT.

Clay will collect a guaranteed 90,000 pounds ($252,000) as well as expenses and ancillary rights.

London's share will be around 40,000 ($112,000).

Belvedere Girl Wins Net Title

Mark Vance of San Anselmo and Barry Brink of Mill Valley are trying today for what Shelly Adams of Belvedere already has.

They want championships in the Marin County Junior Hardcourt tennis tournament which is going on at the Mill Valley Tennis Club.

Miss Adams became the first title winner in the tourney yesterday when she defeated Ann Lamott of Tiburon, 6-3, 6-3, in the finals of Girls' 12 competition. It was a case of the No. 2 seed beating the No. 1 seed.

Vance, last season's prep star from Drake High School, beat Brink in a semi-final match of Boys' 18 action yesterday, 6-4, 6-0. Vance will be going against Jim McLennan in the finals today.

But Brink is not out of the tournament. Also playing in Boys' 16 division, he will be taking on Dan Chadbourne in the finals today, after a 6-1, 6-3 decision over Alan Margot in semi-finals yesterday.

Andy Moffat of Mill Valley, second seeded in Boys' 14, downed Bob Knight in a hotly-contested quarter-final yesterday, 6-1, 5-7, 8-6, before bowing to Tim Vann of Los Altos, the No. 4 seed, 6-2, 6-4 in the semis. Ray Moffat, Andy's little brother, lost a semi-final match to Jon Toney, 6-0, 6-1.

Muffet Hemingway of Mill Valley, top-seed in Girls' 16, was upset by Patty Polenske in the semi-finals yesterday, 6-1, 6-1. And in Girls' 14, Bee Kilgore of Tiburon lost to Cathy Downe, 6-2, 6-3.

Finals continue through today.

Softballers Win

The I-J Best Sellers downed the Fairfax French Laundry Wildcats 12-7 and Montgomery Ward whipped Griese Radiator 8-1 yesterday in San Rafael recreation softball action.

Dave Hutchins led the I-J attack with a homer and single.

RAY LEACH TRYING FOR U.S. JUNIOR GOLF TITLE

Ray Leach of Novato, the 15-year-old golf phenom who almost made it to the U.S. Open this year, is now trying to win a berth in the finals of the USGA Junior Golf Championships going on at Whittier.

Leach shot rounds of 77 and 72 for a 149 total to reach the match play portion of the tournament being waged on the California Country Club links. Then yesterday he won his two matches, 5 and 3 and 4 and 3, to reach the final field of 16.

Leach and 15 other young golfers teed off this morning, with the field slated to be pared to eight for an afternoon 18-hole round. Tomorrow the remaining four golfers will play an 18-hole semi-final round, leaving just two for the afternoon finals.

Father Scannell Leads Air Force Senior Golf

Staff Sgt. William J. Coleman continued his strong bid for top honors in the open division in the annual Fourth Air Force Golf Tournament at Peacock Gap golf course yesterday.

Third round of play was marked by two eagles on the 14th hole. Sgt. Coleman, of McCord Air Force Base, eagled the hole for the second day in a row as Lt. Col. Leonard Scannell, Catholic chaplain of Hamilton Air Force Base, later matched his feat. Coleman shot a two-under-par 69, moving one stroke ahead of the pre-tourney favorite, Airman 1/c Tom Minger of Othello Air Force Station, Wash.

Yesterday's round put Coleman only one over par for the three rounds at 215. Minger is now at 216 in second, and the third place golfer Lt. Robert D. Morganstern of McCord is six strokes behind at 322.

In the senior division, Father Scannell moved into first place by shooting a one-under-par 70, putting him seven strokes ahead of the field with a 221.

Mrs. Prodger Low Net Golf Winner

Mrs. Herbert Prodger's low net score of 97-25—72 and Mrs. Gordon Wardlaw's low putts total of 29 highlighted tray day golf tournament yesterday at the Marin Country Club. Mesdames J. R. Long and W. W. Wieland shared low gross honors, each firing an 89.

Low net scores:

Class A — Mesdames Robert Peterzon, 93-21—72; P. M. Burgess, 97-24—73; tie Gordon Wardlaw, 94-20—74 and Lynn Burks, 95-21—74.

Class B—Mmes. Walter Kessler, 103-28—75 and Ray Cook, 101-26—75; M. J. Pearl, 104-28—76; W. A. Bauer, 104-27—77

Class C—Mmes. Don May, 110-32—78; tie Greg Anderson, 110-31—79 and Bert Mollo, 113-34—79; C. W. Guilder 111-30—81.

HARRIS SCRAMBLES TO CLEVELAND OPEN LEAD

CLEVELAND (AP) — Labron Harris Jr. is a 25-year-old bachelor who hasn't had much luck the last three years as a golf pro.

The 6-foot-3, 190-pound Oklahoman has pocketed only $1,912 in seven tour tournaments this season. His best effort was a tie for 28th in the Western Open.

The bespectacled son of a golf pro was the last man off the tee yesterday in the first round of the Cleveland Open.

There was no gallery and few of those who watched him later knew that Harris had won the U.S. Amateur in 1962.

The former Oklahoma State star was expected to draw more attention today after he turned in a sparkling six-under-par 65 that tied the Lakewood Country Club's par 36-35—71 course record.

That torrid round had Harris out front of the 143 other pros in the $100,000 tourney but the closely bunched field was within striking distance.

Harris, in the rough eight times, had to scramble for his superb performance that included seven birdies. His only mistake came on No. 18 when he overshot the green and took a bogey.

"I was so charged up that I hit a nine iron over the pin and over the green. Then I had a terrible chip, leaving it about 15 short," Harris explained.

"I was excited because my name was up on the leader board for the first time."

Until Harris' heroics, it appeared 10-year pro Johnny Pott would be the first-round leader with a strong 66. Pott, who hasn't won a tournament in three years, played almost faultlessly while ringing up five birds.

In a five-way knot at 67 were Tommy Bolt, Gay Brewer, Bobby Nichols, Phil Rodgers and veteran Freddie Haas.

U.S. Open king Billy Casper, the circuit's leading money winner with more than $100,000 in the till, posted a one-over 72 while Jack Nicklaus, the reigning Masters and British Open champ, slumped to an unusual 74. The Columbus belter suffered double bogeys on both his first and la holes.

Dolphins Debut In The AFL

A prestige test for an established team and the game baptism of a fledgling one are the highlights as the professional football exhibition season gets under way in earnest this weekend.

Placing their pride on the line will be the Green Bay Packers, champions of the National Football League, who play the College All-Stars tonight in the 33rd annual charity game at Soldier Field in Chicago.

Making their debut will be the new Miami Dolphins of the American Football League, who play the Chargers in San Diego tomorrow night.

In other Saturday games involving NFL teams, the New York Giants meet Pittsburgh at Ithaca, N.Y., in the afternoon, while Atlanta is at St. Louis, Cleveland is at Los Angeles, Chicago clashes with Philadelphia at Memphis, Tenn., and Minnesota takes on Detroit at New Orleans, La., in night games.

Another AFL game tomorrow night will have Kansas City at Denver.

Sunday, Dallas plays at San Francisco in an NFL exhibition and Buffalo is at Boston in an AFL preview.

Dick Wood, a four-year AFL veteran who was drafted from Oakland, will start at quarterback for the Dolphins against San Diego, the defending Western Division champion.

The usual preseason happenings happened again yesterday with players being out, injured and traded.

The trade was in the NFL, where Minnesota obtained rookie tackle Jim Fulgham, who played for the University of Minnesota, One of those injured was offensive guard Billy Shaw of Buffalo, who pulled a left leg muscle and will miss the Bills' exhibition game Sunday.

PIRATES OVER THE DODGERS

Guys In Black Hats Help

By VITO STELLINO
UPI Sports Writer

At least that's the way it looks like right now in the three-team dogfight for the National League lead.

The inside word on the scramble is supposed to be that the Pirates are really the best team in the league but are so riddled with dissension and so busy squabbling with Manager Harry Walker they might blow the pennant down the stretch.

The Los Angeles Dodgers are usually cited as an example of a team in direct contrast to the Pirates. Maury Wills keeps claiming they'll win the pennant because of "togetherness" —supposedly the Dodgers are a close-knit group of self-sacrificing team players who believe in their manager, Walt Alston.

So what happened when a "togetherness" club met head-on with a team filled with dissension? That's right, it was no contest, the guys in the black hats pulled out another one.

The Pirates lost the first game of the four-game series Monday but then came back to win three straight games from the Dodgers, climaxed by last night's 8-1 drubbing of the defending world champions.

BACK ON TOP

Combined with the New York Mets' astonishing 8-6 come-from-behind victory over San Francisco on Ron Swoboda's homer, the Pirates moved back into first place by two percentage points.

Many of the Pirate players make no bones about the fact that they're not about to name their children after Walker. And in one recent game, Walker even got into an argument on the mound about a pitch called by catcher Jesse Gonder and threatened to send him to the minors.

But the rest of the players rallied around Goder and threatened to rebel. The incident, however, was smoothed over before it came to that.

But the arguments with Walker don't seem to be bothering the Pirate bats and they pounded out 16 hits yesterday to back up Vern Law's six-hitter and pin the loss on Dodger started Claude Osteen.

Elsewhere in the National League, Philadelphia beat Houston 2-2, Chicago edged Atlanta 5-2 and Cincinnati defeated St. Louis 7-1.

The Pirates gave the Dodger pitching staff its worst single-game pasting of the season as they unloaded against five pitchers. Manny Mota and Donn Clendenon had three hits and knocked in two runs apiece while Gene Alley, Jose Pagan and Jim Pagliaroni each chipped in with two hits. Law won his first game since July 8 with his routedgoing performance.

Sammy Ellis scattered eight hits as Cincinnati beat St. Louis for their ninth victory in their last 10 games Dave Simpson homered in the first inning and Pete Rose doubled in a second-inning run and scored himself on Tommy Helms' single to give Ellis all the runs he needed.

Cookie Rojas hit a three-run homer to highlight a five-run third inning and John Briggs hit a two-run homer to climax a six-run fifth as Philadelphia beat Houston. Jim Bunning scattered nine hits to pick up his 12th victory while Dave Giusti suffered the loss.

Ernie Banks and Randy Hundley hit homers to lead Chicago to its triumph over Atlanta. Dick Ellsworth was touched for 10 hits but picked up his fifth victory against 17 losses. Denny Lemaster gave up all five runs in his 1 1-3 inning stint and suffered the loss.

S.R. Li'l League Officers Elected

The American Little League elected new officers for the 1966-67 season last week at its last general meeting of 1966.

In addition to the elections, trophies were given to Fred Lucia, manager of the Spartans who is leaving after four years of service, and to John Olivera, for seven years of service. Ellen Olivera also received a gift for as many years of service to the league.

SAN ANSELMO BASEBALL

Two Marin Triumphs

Mill Valley downed Calistoga 7-2 in senior league action and San Anselmo thumped Sausalito 10-5 in the major league portion of the San Anselmo Boys' Baseball Tournament last night at Memorial Park.

Dave Distel hurled Mill Valley into the finals with a three-hitter. Distel also led the winners at the plate with three hits. Ken Bolstead had two hits and Bob Gerrard blasted a home run for Mill Valley.

San Anselmo collected only four hits in its victory, but eight walks given up by Sausalito told the story. Tim Haggerty pitched four strong innings and Craig Kasnoff hit a homer for the Hub City team. Osborne Turner had two hits for Sausalito.

PACKERS FAVORED

All-Star Game On TV Tonight

Perhaps, one of the greatest four-man shows in the series history may be anticipated. That would become the performances by Packer backs Jim Taylor and Paul Hornung and All-Star backs Jim Grabowski of Illinois and Donny Anderson of Texas Tech.

Grabowski and Anderson, signed by Green Bay for a reported $375,000 and $575,000, respectively, are earmarked to take the jobs from Taylor and Hornung.

Undoubtedly, with all the money on the hoof, this game will keep fingers crossed as never before by NFL and AFL officialdom. Injury could shelve a $500,000 investment for the season.

Among other well-heeled rookies going against the Packers are linebacker Tommy Nobis of Texas, $550,000 signee of the Atlanta Falcons; linebacker Frank Emanuel of Tennessee. $350,000, Miami Dolphins and halfback Mike Garrett, Southern California Heisman Trophy winner, $325,000, Kansas City Chiefs.

Sauer named this starting offensive All-Star line-up:

Ends—Gary Garrison, San Diego, State, and Milt Morin, Massachusetts; guards — John Niland, Iowa, and Tom Mack, Michigan; center — Pat Killorin, Syracuse.

Quarterback — Steve Sloan, Alabama; halfbacks — Roy Shivers, Utah State, and Anderson; fullback — Johnny Roland, Missouri.

"I think I can promise all 46 men on the squad will be used," said Sauer.

PASS THE PINEAPPLE PLEASE, MR. MONEYBAGS

MORAGA (UPI)—Quarterback John Brodie was back with the San Francisco 49ers today, but his teammates won't let him forget his month-long holdout in Hawaii.

In his first drill yesterday, Brodie moved to his accustomed spot behind center Bruce Bosley and barked out signals. On hike, Bosley handed a pineapple to the startled quarterback.

The pineapple carried a tag which read, $1,000,000-$3,000."

Say Brodie Got $915,000

MORAGA, Calif. (AP) — Quarterback John Brodie may have become the highest paid athlete in the history of sports by coming to terms with the San Francisco 49ers of the National Football League.

In a copyrighted story yesterday, the Oakland Tribune said Brodie got a total of $915,000 to sign his contract. The story broke it down as $250,000 a year for the next three years, $90,000 for 1969 and $7,5000 in legal fees with payment of the entire sum spread over 10 years for income tax purposes.

The Houston Oilers of the American Football League, the newspaper said, would split the cost with 49ers except for the $90,000 for 1969. Brodie, 31, got an estimated $35,000 last year in the best of the 10 seasons he's played for San Francisco.

The contract figure exceeds the reported $800,000 Donny Anderson got for signing with the Green Bay Packers last year.

Willie Mays of the San Francisco Giants and Sandy Koufax of the Los Angeles Dodgers are believed the highest paid baseball players at about $130,000 a year each.

Brodie led the NFL in almost all passing departments last year. He then visited Houston, where he was offered a reported $750,000 in May to jump leagues. But the two pro loops merged in June and the deal died.

Brodie, however, had enlisted the help of San Francisco lawyer, John Elliott Cook, before going to Houston. Apparently, they had a wedge to gain a huge settlement — perhaps a threatened antitrust suit against the merger based on the Houston offer.

While the 49ers opened camp, Brodie remained in Hawaii on vacation with his family. He was due to report to the St. Mary's College site on July 20. He reported Wednesday, two weeks late.

Brodie, who grew up in Oakland and went to college at Stanford, declined comment as he worked out with the team for the first time. General Manager Lou Spadia of the 49ers also kept mum in Chicago. Cook also declined to discuss the terms of the contract.

Head Coach Jack Christiansen said Brodie would suit up but not play in Sunday's preseason opener at San Francisco against the Dallas Cowboys.

Students To Sell Football Tickets

San Rafael High School students will sell season tickets for five home football games and three pre-season basketball games in a door-to-door fund-raising campaign Aug. 27 to Sept. 16.

According to Don Bachman, student chairman of the project, proceeds will be used to sponsor a foster child on behalf of the high school student association and to purchase athletic equipment for the school softball team.

Recent Mass Murders Spur Anti-Gun Groups To Action

STEVENS

Early tomorrow morning thousands of Californians will go into the field after coastal deer. Each will be carrying a rifle—in the eyes of other thousands each such firearm is a potential weapon to commit multiple murders.

The anti-gun group will call attention to the mass murders by rifle-fire in Austin, Tex. Certain legislators in Washington will whip up a fever of outrage at the Austin incident, and there is a chance Congress will enact a law so stringent that the many sportsmen who will populate the coastal areas may well be having the final unhampered deer hunt.

THE NEWSPAPERS have quoted Sen. Thomas J. Dodd as saying: "The incident in Austin is an extreme example of what has been going on for much too long in this country!" In the next paragraph, he is quoted as saying, "Rifles are used to murder and wound thousands of people annually. I hope these shootings in Austin will cause those who have fought controls over the sale of rifles to any criminal or deranged person to have second thoughts."

THAT STATEMENT must be the height of something or other. It implies that certain groups advocate the sale of rifles to "known criminals or deranged persons." I wonder where he got his statistics proving "Rifles are used to murder tens of thousands of people annually."

TO FURTHER impress Congress, President Johnson is quoted as saying: "What happened is not without a lesson: That we must press urgently for legislation now pending in Congress to help prevent the wrong persons from obtaining firearms."

Every person will go along with that; most certainly a rifle or shotgun should be denied the WRONG PERSON, but who is the "wrong person"?

IS THE law abiding citizen who purchases a rifle or shotgun for hunting deer, waterfowl and other game a WRONG PERSON? And, incidentally, not only guns are used to commit mass murder like Charles Joseph Whitman, in Austin. Richard Franklin Speck found a knife was ideal for murdering the eight nurses in Illinois. Would the anti-gun group have a law passed banning the sale of knives?

How can one tell who is and who isn't a "wrong person"? According to the newspapers, Whitman was considered a "right person," extremely likable and a good student. Fellow students, teachers and neighbors proclaimed this mass murderer a fine upstanding person. He had no police record and was a friend to all. How could it be known that this likable fellow would go berserk and kill wantonly-senselessly? Would the anti-gun advocates have X-rays taken of every person about to purchase a sporting arm? (An autopsy disclosed a tumor on Whitman's brain, it is claimed.)

EVERY NORMAL person has been shocked at the Austin incident; every normal person has the deepest sympathy for the families of the 15 innocent persons killed, but, every normal sportsman must rebel when he is threatened to lose the natural recreation he derives from using his rifle or shotgun in the field. Let's hope the most populous state in the union doesn't go off half-cocked as a result of the tragic incident in Austin, Texas, and enact anti-gun legislation at the state or city level, nor that Congress passes a law at the government level.

Golf Course Blossoms Out Of Oakland Garbage Dump

By JOE SARGIS

OAKLAND, UPI — Communities with ideas of building sports and recreational facilities on water, take note. It can be done with a little imagination and far less money than you might think.

To build a golf course, for instance, as Oakland has done on San Francisco Bay, all it takes is a garbage dump, some 250,000 yards of topsoil and excellent design.

The total cost to Oakland for such a project was only $800,000, but the net result is one of the finest new municipal courses possible and a much needed sports facility for the expanding Bay Area where land is scarce and expensive.

Several other communities astride 50-mile long San Francisco Bay are toying with similar plans, while others are thinking more along lines of creating land in the bay for real estate developments.

The Oakland project was considered an ambitious one indeed when Lew F. Galbraith, a member of the city's recreation commission for 12 years until his death in 1963, began clamoring for a golf course.

In 1961, Galbraith saw his dreams come true when the land adjacent to the bay near the Oakland International Airport was let out to garbage firms to fill in. It took four years to complete the project as some 900 acre feet of garbage was dumped into the bay at an average depth of 12 feet.

Then topsoil, some of it brought in from as far away as 27 miles, was packed in atop the garbage heap and Bob Baldock, one of the top golf course architects in the West, was called in to design a course.

C. W. (Chuck) Weatherton, an old hand at building golf courses, was named superintendent and Don Sherwood, head pro at the plush Palo Alto Hills Country Club, was hired to run the course.

Now, with opening day only a few months away, work is moving along rapidly on the final phases of construction.

"We are very happy with the way things have turned out," said Weatherton while conducting a tour of the course. "The layout and design is outstanding when you think that less than a year ago all this was a public dump."

The course measures some 6,500 yards, has the standard four par-three holes, four par-fives and 10 par-fours, plus two putting greens and a driving range. A flood control ditch traverses the layout, crossing four holes and paralleling a fifth.

"This course, as you can see," said Weatherton, "has been designed for the weekend duffer and the low handicap player as well. It'll be a challenge to both types of player in different ways. Our only problem at the moment is a lack of trees."

National Seashore Closed To Hunters

Federally owned land within Point Reyes National Seashore will be closed to deer hunters this season, according to Chief Ranger Gordon K. Patterson.

Patterson explained that the area was closed to hunting because "the seashore poses varied and difficult problems concerning the safety of the visiting public."

Deer hunting season opens tomorrow and runs through Sept. 25.

Gulf Oil Planning To Purchase Cities Service Midwest Outlets

GULF OIL CORP. has concluded arrangements to purchase a network of marketing properties in 10 Midwest states from Cities Service Co. Gulf directors voted to increase the quarterly cash dividend to 55 cents per share, payable Sept. 8 —an increase of 5 cents over dividends paid in the two previous 1966 quarters and a 120 per cent increase in quarterly dividends since mid-1961.

SPERRY AND HUTCHINSON CO., known for its S and H Green Stamp service, reported net earnings of $6,337,000 or 59 cents a share, up from 51 cents a share a year earlier. Second quarter stamp service revenues were $85,926,000, highest for any previous second quarter. First half earnings increased 13 per cent to $1.12 per share, up from 99 cents in the like 1965 period.

FLYING TIGER LINE had $4,698,369 earnings in the first six months of 1966, 202 per cent above the same period of 1965. Per share earnings after preferred dividends for 1966 were $2.38, compared to 1965 first half earnings of 78 cents per share.

NATIONAL AIRLINES has filed an application to operate non-stop scheduled jet service between Miami and London. If approved, National will be able to provide one-stop service to the continent from California, Houston and New Orleans. Service would not be inaugurated until 1970.

WESTERN AIR LINES reported first half profits of $6,102,000 or $1.42 a share, compared to $5,221,000 or $1.22 a share during the first half of 1965. Six-months revenues increased 21.5 per cent, expenses were up 21.4 per cent, passengers carried were up 23.3 per cent.

PACIFIC INTERMOUNTAIN EXPRESS earnings for the first six months of 1966 show a gain of 73 per cent over the same period of 1965. Consolidated revenues for both first and second quarters are up from 1965 and total almost $78 million.

WHITE MOTOR CORP. increased its quarterly dividend rate from 40 to 45 cents per share on common stock, payable Sept. 23. Net sales of $420,025,000 for the first half and earnings of $19,224,000, up 29 and 57 per cent respectively from last year, topped all-time records. Last month White signed to purchase assets of the Hercules Engine Division of Hupp Corp.

TITLE INSURANCE AND TRUST CO. announced consolidated net earnings of $5,835,742 for the first six months, equal to $1.19 per share of common stock and down from the $1.50 per share for the first six months of 1965. Title orders closed in the six months of 1966 were down 14.1 per cent from last year. In California and Nevada the decline was 17.8 per cent.

APPLIED TECHNOLOGY, INC., Palo Alto directors declared a 50 per cent stock dividend on common stock, payable Aug. 24. The board also announced plans to undertake common stock equity financing to provide additional capital required for expansion.

SUNSET HOUSE, Los Angeles mail order business, declared a 20 per cent stock dividend in addition to the regular quarterly cash dividend of 15 cents a share. Both are payable Sept. 15.

WEYERHAEUSER CO., Tacoma-based forest products firm, broke ground this week for a new shipping container plant in Modesto, scheduled for completion in January. The company also operates container plants in Alameda, Colton and Santa Paula.

YUBA INDUSTRIES, INC., reorganized last April, reported earnings of $604,441 on sales of $8.3 million for the second 1966 quarter, equal to $1.08 per share of common stock after deduction of dividends for preferred stock. Six-months earnings of $1.1 million compared to $277,748 last year.

Bekins Net Income Rises 31 Per Cent

LOS ANGELES—Bekins Van and Storage Co., Los Angeles, reported today net income for the six months ended June 30 increased 31 per cent to $1,487,000, equivalent to 93 cents per share on the 1,599,148 shares outstanding.

For the similar period a year ago net income amounted to $1,133,000, equal to 72 cents per share on 1,568,031 shares then outstanding.

Treasury Offers Record Interest Rate On Notes

By PETER S. NAGAN
Advance News Service

WASHINGTON — The U. S. Treasury will pay the highest interest rate it has given in 45 years on two new securities to be issued this month. The credit tightness that has pushed up all money rates is now forcing the government to put a 5.25 per cent coupon on its direct obligations.

The action isn't expected to move other interest rates, up or down. But when you consider that the Treasury was paying 1 per cent or so less just a year ago, the current rate is a measure of how scarce money has become. The new securities offer those who do have some spare cash on hand what may be the highest return they will ever see for such gilt-edged paper.

The Treasury is offering the new securities to holders of two issues maturing on August 15 and three others coming due in November. These obligations were originally issued as far back as 1958, and called for interest rates as low as 3 per cent.

In exchange, Uncle Sam is offering a choice of either a 12 month certificate or a note maturing in four years and nine months to the owners of the August expirations. (The Treasury reserves the term "bond" for issues maturing after five years.) The November maturities can only be exchanged for the longer-term offering.

Only holders of maturing obligations have the right to participate in the new Treasury offering. These are mainly banks and corporations, though individuals own some, too. Nonholders can acquire the new issues by buying the maturing obligations or by waiting till the new ones are delivered to present holders and buying them in the open market through a bank or broker. Holders who decline to exchange will be paid off in cash.

Before the new issues were announced on Wednesday, the highest rate of return the Treasury has offered since 1921 was 5 per cent. It came at the peak of the tight money period of 1959 — a level that was reached again last May.

The creep-up reflects the stepped-up efforts of the credit controllers at the Federal Reserve Board in Washington to keep the present business expansion from turning into an inflationary boom.

In the face of soaring demands for funds, the "Fed" is trying to limit the growth of the supply. As a consequence, interest rates — the price of money — have been going up.

You see this on every side —in rates on mortgages, on consumer loans, and in corporate and municipal bond yields. The returns on savings have been going up, too.

The Treasury is not immune to interest-rate increases. It does its borrowing in the open market,

Stock Market Clings To Upside, But Barely

Profit taking on two days of vigorous rallies was a factor in a generally uncertain performance. Preweekend caution also was involved.

Some airlines were weak because of delay in Congress of measures to end the strike. Reports of revenue losses also hurt some airlines.

Eastern Air Lines was down about 4 in late dealings. United and TWA also were weak.

Gains were held by Du Pont, General Electric, General Motors and a selection of other leading issues.

Volume for the day was estimated at 5.4 million shares compared with 6.91 million Thursday.

Here was the picture near the close:

Some airlines took sharp losses after Labor Secretary W. Willard Wirtz testified in Washington that the administration still has taken no position as to whether a law to end the airline strike should be passed.

Eastern Airlines sank more than 4 points, United 2, TWA nearly 3 and Continental Air Lines about 2. American held a fractional gain. Pan American was off a fraction.

Tiburon Bank To Start New Branch

Tiburon National Bank has received permission to open a branch office in Novato, it was announced today.

Charles Tijerina, president and chairman of the board, said the bank's recent application to establish an office in the Nave Shopping Center was approved by the controller of the currency and that an opening is being scheduled for Oct. 1.

The new office will be managed by William Berry of Novato, former manager of the Crocker-Citizens National Bank in that city. Recently, Berry has been working at the Bank's Tiburon headquarters.

The Novato branch will be Tiburon National's sixth office in the county. A Sausalito office is also scheduled to open this fall. The bank will celebrate its third anniversary on Aug. 30. It reports total assets in excess of $10 million.

American women outlive men. There are about 129 older women per 100 older men, the U.S. Administration on Aging reports. Life expectancy at birth at 73.7 years for females and 66.9 for males. Life expectancy for women still is increasing faster than for men.

Chemical Air Attack On Madera Grass Fire

MADERA (AP)—The California Division of Forestry ordered a heavy chemical aerial bombardment on a small grass and brush fire in Madera County's Grub Gulch area yesterday, fearful of a recurrence of the 43,000-acre Harlow fire of 1961.

Yesterday's fire was eight miles southwest of Awanhee in western Madera County, about two miles southwest of where the large Harlow fire was halted five years ago.

Five aerial tankers dropped chemical retardants on the developing blaze while 50 firemen were ordered to the scene. The fire was surrounded within two hours after it started and halted at 30 acres. A division spokesman said the blaze was started by a power line rubbing against a tree.

In other parts of the valley, 25 men fought a 200-acre grass fire five miles north of the San Luis Dam in Merced County extinguishing it in mid-afternoon with the aid of an air tanker. Fires were also reported out of control last night in Kern and Tulare counties.

A persistent 125-acre blaze that broke out Tuesday in Tulare County's Cherokee Flats was contained, but still listed uncontrolled because of numerous burning logs. Fire officials said the logs still posed a danger because many of them were on hillsides and could possibly roll down into unburned trees.

A 100-acre grass and brush fire west of Keene in Kern County was attacked and contained by 82 fire fighters and three aerial tankers. It was in rugged terrain, almost inaccessible to heavy equipment.

Court Refuses To Drop Judge's Arson Conviction

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—The District Court of Appeal has rejected an attempt by suspended San Jose municipal judge Morris H. Hardemann to have his arson conspiracy convictions wiped out.

The 53-year-old Hardemann was convicted in 1964 of conspiracy to commit arson and to obstruct justice. He was placed on probation and suspended from his court job.

The appeal court yesterday it found no evidence of prejudicial misconduct in the trial nor that he was wrongly subjected to double jeopardy. The decision also said there was ample evidence to sustain the jury's guilty verdicts.

Convicted with Hardemann were painting contractor Kenneth G. Wickholm of Morgan Hill and car salesman Larry Sherman of San Jose. Both Wickholm and Sherman were found guilty of arson.

Hardemann's jury was unable to agree on the arson charge, and a new trial had been scheduled for Oct. 26.

The trio was indicted after an old cabin insured for $2,000 burned on Hardemann's property in mountains west of Gilroy.

Hardemann ran for the judgeship in the June primary and led the ticket. He faces a run-off election in November against County Clerk Paul R. Teilh. A candidate who ran third, Renee Baum, has been trying unsuccessfully to have Hardemann's name removed from the ballot.

Venezuela Features Some Foreigners

CARACUS (UPI) — Almost 8 per cent of Venezuela's 9 million inhabitants are foreigners from about 75 different nations. Sixty-two per cent of the 700,000 foreigners in Venezuela live in Caracas, the capital city of about 1.5 million population.

The largest foreign colonies in the country are from Spain, including many immigrants from the Canary Islands, Italy, Portugal and the United States—in that order.
